Locating and negotiating for a real estate property requires the Realtor's experience and judgment. The lender's financial capability makes the transaction possible. Determining the safety of the title requires the lawyer's specialized knowledge.

FOREWORD

FOR THE NINTH consecutive year, the headquarters staff has prepared a special issue of The Florida Bar Journal for the dual purpose of advising the courts of those admitted to practice in their jurisdiction and providing members of the Bar a ready reference of needed information. This laborious and somewhat costly undertaking finds its quid pro quo in the letters of gratitude the editorial staff receives from members of the Bar and layman subscribers who write that they find this issue of daily and invaluable use.

Increasing in size each year in keeping with the numerical growth of the membership, the September issue now has almost 500 pages. In addition to our regular monthly material we include an alphabetical and geographical roster of the membership, the officers, Board of Governors, committees and sections of The Florida Bar, courts and their personnel, as many legal organizations as could be readily obtained, the executive and legislative branches of the state government, Florida's congressional delegation, newly revised recording fees and stamp taxes and much other information in as concise a manner as possible. A cross index is found at the back of the book to assist the user in finding the desired information.

The United States Post Office Department, in a general tightening of postal regulations, advised that additional editorial material must be included in order for this issue of the Journal to fulfill the requirements of its second class mailing permit. Accordingly, we are including for the first time an informative article entitled, "Plaintiff's Pleadings," by Clinton Green of Miami, which may prove helpful to the practicing lawyer in preparing pleadings.

Lawyers are a mobile group. Hundreds of address changes are sent to the headquarters office each month. For that reason some of the addresses in this issue will have changed from the time the copy was sent to the printer and the date of mailing. We regret this inevitable fact and hope that by prompt notice of any change in your address, future editions can be made completely current.

Dear Fellow Member:

The September issue of The Florida Bar Journal has customarily been the vehicle by which the Executive Director has discharged the mandate of the Integration Rule to "furnish the County Judges and the Clerks of all Courts of Record in each county a list of all active members in good standing in their respective counties".

In addition to this formal roster, this year's issue contains a wealth of useful information, such as the current name, address and telephone number of almost every federal, state and county official with whom lawyers customarily work, the Integration Rule and By-Laws of The Florida Bar, the Canons of Ethics and even the proper way to compute recording fees and documentary stamps. The devoted work of our Headquarters staff, together with the enthusiastic cooperation of our public officials throughout Florida, have made this possible.

It is a publication that I find necessary to have upon my desk throughout the year. The Board of Governors hopes you find it to be equally useful and convenient in your day-to-day practice.

Cordially yours,

Delbridge L. Gibbs

PLAINTIFF'S PLEADINGS

by Clinton Green

PLAINTIFF'S PLEADINGS—There is actually only one—the complaint."[1] In rare instances, the court may order a reply to an affirmative defense.[2] The basic purpose of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure is that there shall be only a "complaint" and an "answer." In this discussion we shall deal only with the plaintiff's problem; but many of the ideas advanced would apply equally as well to the defense.

At the outset, may we urge you to abolish from your mind the "count" theory. In spite of Florida Coast Enterprises v. Rosen,[3] it has no place in modern theory. Think only of the several "claims" you may have. In railroad cases, where we most frequently see the desirability of impressing upon the trial court the formidable principles of "Federal Acts," don't file a "count" on each act! Prepare your complaint with consecutively numbered paragraphs from beginning to end; and where you come to the alternative allegations that your claim may be under one act or another, merely put a subtitle in the middle of the page, to guide the thinking of the judge; for example, "Claim Under Safety Appliance Act"; "Claim Under Federal Employers Liability Act"; etc.

It has been held: The purpose of a complaint is to advise the court and defendant of the nature of a cause of action asserted by the plaintiff.[1] Why not give a clue to this by putting a short statement of the nature of the claim in the caption of your paper, "The Complaint"? For example, why not say: "Complaint for Personal Injury" opposite the bracket designating the parties. Beneath that, in parentheses, you can say, "(Injuries to Railway Employee)" and beneath that, "Claims Under Federal Safety Appliance Act and Under Federal Railway Employers Liability Act" and beneath that, "Claim for Exemplary and Compensatory Damages" and beneath that, "Demand for Jury Trial."

The judge can see at a glance what type of case he has to hear, without even having to read the complaint. It alerts him at once to the fact that he is faced with Federal Railway Law, Admiralty Law, etc. Psychologically, he will consider it such a case to the bitter end!

Joinder of Claims

Don't overlook the fact that you can join all the claims for the entire family in one complaint and in the court having jurisdiction of the greater claim.[4] The Ansbro case is an illustration. Here the mother and three boys were injured. The attorney who filed the case was not, at first, aware of the permissive joinder of all claims for: (a) the injuries to the mother; (b) the injuries to the three boys and (c) the derivative claim of the father. Only two of these claims justified circuit court jurisdiction; but faced with limited insurance, you would not want to sue for one in the justice of peace court, one in the county court, and the others in the circuit court—requiring three trials! The law is clear, that you can join all of these five claims in one complaint and in one court.[5]

Clinton Green used this paper as a basis for his lecture in Practicing Lawyer's Course No. 1, Civil Practice Before Trial, which was conducted during the past year by The Florida Bar's Committee on Continuing Legal Education. A practicing lawyer in Miami, he is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a director of the University of Miami Law Center, a member of The American Academy of Forensic Sciences and of the Law Science Academy of America, and a member of the Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers.

Where Will You Sue?

Another thing to consider before you draft your complaint is: "venue." "Where will you sue?" Resident individuals may be sued in the county where any resident defendant resides, or where the cause of action accrued.[6] This may give you the choice of, for example, three counties: John Smith resides in Duval County; Bill Adams in Alachua County; and the car owned by John Smith, driven by Bill Adams, struck your client's car in Dade County. You have your choice: Duval County, Alachua County and Dade County. Where would you get the best jury for your case? Many considerations may determine your choice of counties.

Non-Residents May Be Sued in Any County

Assume your client is in an auto collision in Gainesville, Florida; that the owner of the car which hit his car is from Wisconsin, and the driver from New York. Non-residents have no privilege of being sued in any particular county.[7] They may be sued in any county in which they may be served with process; and since they can be served under the Non-resident Owner and Operator Statute,[8] and since torts are transitory actions, they may be sued in any county of the state. This also applies to railroad companies, such as Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, Seaboard Air Line Railroad, etc, because they may be sued in any county where they may be served and they have ticket agents and offices in most major counties of the state.

Domestic Corporations

Many domestic corporations may be sued in more than one county. For example, a domestic corporation may be sued (a) where the cause of action accrued, (b) in the county of residence of any co-defendant, and (c) in any county where it maintains an office for the transaction of its customary business.[9] A classic example of this is the Florida East Coast Railway Company, a Florida corporation. Its principal office is in St. Augustine, but it also has other offices in all major counties in which it operates.

The consideration of "where" you want to file your complaint will also determine the parties you want to name as defendant. In our example given above, let's assume John Smith has no insurance and no assets, but you will decide to name him as a defendant because it automatically gives you the right to sue in Duval County.

Alternative Allegations

That priceless word: "Or"! Forget the use of the word, "and"! Allege that the defendant negligently "maintained," or "operated," or "controlled" his motor vehicle. By using the word "or" you are not "fenced in." You can unquestionably prove any one or all of these charges.

"Alternative pleading" is clearly authorized by our present rules.[10] There will be instances where you will use completely opposed allegations; but if you end each preceding one with the statement: "or, in the alternative," it is perfectly proper, and you cannot be compelled to "elect" between them. You may rely on all as alternatives between which the jury may choose; and you may have charges submitted by the judge on such alternative propositions. You can apply this liberally to contract actions, as well as tort actions.

Order of Pleading

It is recommended that each paragraph be numbered with ordinary arabic numerals—not Roman numerals. Roman numerals are archaic —in fact, dead. Not many people will recognize Roman numerals up to 25. Start the complaint with an introduction of the parties: "Jim Jones sues Bill Smith, a resident of Pinellas County, and avers:"

In your second paragraph, say what happened. (Don't make the judge wade through six paragraphs to find this out.) In subsequent paragraphs you can follow with allegations of agency, contractual relations, negligence, breach of contract, nature of injury or loss, claims for damages and prayer for relief. Under the new rules every complaint is considered to pray for general relief; and ordinarily it is the facts alleged, the issues and the proof, and not the form of prayer for relief, which determines the nature of the relief to be granted.[11] You would think "total disability" would warrant a finding of "loss of earning capacity"; but the court has held that you cannot recover this item unless you specially plead it![12] Let's not, therefore, just "assume" that all losses are properly classed "general relief."

The rule that special damages, "not the usual result of the acts complained of," must be alleged, is still the law.[13] Don't take a chance—allege all the damages.

Agency

In your order of pleading, this will probably follow your description of the event. Here again, make liberal use of the alternative. Allege: that "A" was at all times material to the action, the agent or employee of "B" or "C" or "D"; or all of the defendants, acting in the scope and course of such agency or employment.

Contractual Relationship

In logical order, you will next allege any pertinent contractual relationship; such as an oral contract, or, in the alternative, a written contract, or a contract evidenced part in writing and part orally. Again we see the liberal use of the alternative. You can

---

[10] Rule 1.8(b) "* * * Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded * * ." Rule 1.8(g) " * * A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims * * * in the same right as he has * * *. A party may also set forth two or more statements of a claim * * * alternatively * * *." [Adaptation of Federal Rule 8(a)].

[11] CHASIN v. RICHEY (Fla.) 91 So.2d, 811; and PHELPS v. HIGGINS (Fla. DCA 2) 120 So.2d, 633.

[12] SELTZER v. GRINE (Fla.) 79 So.2d, 688.

[13] EPHREM v. PHILLIPS (Fla. DCA-1) 99 So. 2d 257.

allege a tort and a breach of contract, in the alternative. Example: (common carrier case) By alleging breach of contract to safely transport or, in the alternative, negligent operation of the train, or bus, or airplane, etc.

Legal Relationship (Implied By Law)

If there is no contractual relationship involved, you would next allege the "legal" relationship between the parties from which a duty arises. Examples: "that plaintiff was upon the premises of the defendant, in its grocery store, to make purchases therein, and thereby became a business invitee upon said premises; that plaintiff was an employee of the defendant railroad, acting in the scope and course of such employment; that the railroad was engaged as a common carrier in interstate commerce by railroad, which embraced and included the employment of the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff was then engaged in an activity which affected transportation in interstate commerce."

Negligence or Breach of Contract

In the logical order of your complaint you will next deal with the "tort" or the "default." Here again, make liberal use of the alternative "OR"! An illustration of the beneficial use of the alternative in a situation where the pleader runs into a hazard follows: The preliminary paragraph alleges that the auto operator "negligently * * * maintained, operated, or controlled" the automobile. Assume, however, that he had no duty whatever as to "maintenance" and that the collision was due solely to faulty brakes! Your proof would not meet your allegation and you would find yourself "breaking out in a cold sweat" at the trial.

This contingency can be provided for in a separate alternative paragraph, making a direct charge against the owner, or employer, alleging:

"That the said defendant, XYZ Delivery Service, was guilty of the following negligent acts, or negligent omissions, to-wit:

"(a) In maintaining said motor vehicle operated by said Henry Q. Driver in a negligent manner, or defective condition, * * * or, in the alternative

(b) In negligently hiring the said Henry Q. Driver, who was an irresponsible and habitually negligent or careless driver * * *."

You can avoid the pitfall of the Hines case[14]—a railroad case where the only negligence charged was that of the engineer. The jury found the railroad "guilty" and the engineer "not guilty." The court said the railroad must be absolved, because the only act charged was that of the engineer, and since he is "not guilty," the railroad must also, as a matter of law, be "not guilty"!

It will also be observed that the charge is that "the railroad" (and not any individual), was guilty of the negligent acts or omissions charged.

We have used illustrations here pertaining to tort claims; however, the same principles apply to alleging breach of a contract. You can aver a breach of one clause, or in the alternative, of another clause, or, of both clauses. You can allege a delay in delivery, or in the alternative, that the goods were not as warranted, or any other breach, failure or omission, alleging each in the alternative; to give you a clear field in your proof and to present an issue to which every piece of evidence you have may apply.

Damage Allegations

This discussion also applies equally to contract and tort claims. In contract, you probably would have damages all of which would be classified as "special"; so you must be careful to include, in the alternative if you wish, every possible loss, accrued, unaccrued, contingent, etc.; such as "loss of future anticipated profits," etc.

In relation to tort claims, we have seen that the Seltzer case[15] requires that a claim be stated in the complaint for this as "special damage"; although another case seems to indicate that it may be shown "under allegations of serious personal injuries";[16] why take a chance? By carefully preparing and "standardizing" a form, you can feel secure in feeling that you have covered all the elements or items usually encountered in the average automobile case or similar tort case.

Assume, however, that the car carried a valuable "hi-fi" set which had been damaged, or property thrown out of the car and lost at the scene, or stolen while the driver was unconscious—these are all special items and must be claimed in the complaint; so a form does not cover everything, and you must study your case to be certain nothing has been overlooked.

Damage Allegations and the Damage Chart

Look ahead in the drafting of your complaint to the ultimate use of what you say in the complaint in regard to damages; that is, the composition of your requested instructions which you will hand up to the judge, and the items you will write on your damage chart when you sum up your case to the jury. Unless there is a proper basis in your complaint, you may be deprived of a jury instruction and of the right to include a very substantial figure on your damage chart.

"Approved Forms" Pleading

Don't overlook the fact that in the Florida Statutes and appended to the Rules of Civil Procedure in Florida Statutes Annotated, there are "approved" forms for your use. Statutory forms include forms for: forcible entry and unlawful detainer:[17] accounts, contracts, notes, bills, warranty, lease, covenant to repair on fire insurance policy;[18] and ejectment.[19] Make it a point to check the statutory form first. The Common Law Rules have abolished these statutes and forms, so that the forms no longer have statutory sanction, but they are still of use as a "guide" only, where the Supreme Court has not adopted a "form" pursuant to the new rules.[20]

These "statutory" forms have, to some extent, already been replaced by the "approved" forms to be found in connection with the various rules. First, consult the rules and forms found in volumes 30 and 31 of Florida Statutes Annotated. These are intended by the court as "guides" only. They do not pretend in tort cases to set out all the special damages recoverable; nor will they exactly fit every case. Individual judges may require more than is contained in these forms.

These forms contain complaint forms on such subjects as: Accounts,[21] Assault and Battery,[22] Contract,[23] Ejectment,[24] False Imprison-

[20]The rule has abolished "common counts"; but this does not mean that the forms of the individual common counts as they formerly existed may not be used as a complaint, if the complaint thereby sets forth a brief and simple statement of ultimate facts on which the pleader relies and informs the defendant of the nature of the case against him. Other Considerations in Plaintiff's Pleading

There are other things to consider than to barely manage to state a case. Do you want to do bare "minimal" pleading? It may be indicated, if you want to advise your opponent as little of your case as possible. If you feel sure he will not unearth your complete case before trial by interrogatories, request for admissions, discovery depositions, pretrial conference "purge" etc., you might yet just manage to surprise him with something!

On the other hand, you may want to make a good "show of strength" early in the game. If you have a very bad injury, you may want to describe the gory detail in the complaint. If you have atrocious negligence, you may want to detail it in the complaint. Bear in mind that this paper is served on the defendant, personally, with a summons. He will read it and, with a shudder, run to his insurance company with it.

This is the first paper the insurance company will see. It will have a great deal of information about the case, because its agents were swarming over the scene before you ever heard about it; but it will, nevertheless, be put on notice that you are fully aware of your rights and are after them with both guns loaded! It may cause it to put up high "reserves" against the case; thereby insuring you a better settlement offer later.

This is a form of "psychological warfare"—but don't overdo it. Don't particularize your negligence without stating, in the alternative, some good general charges to fall back on. Don't state injuries that your client does not have, because your client may be confronted at the trial with: "You claim you had a hysterectomy because this car of Mr. Jones hit yours in the rear; now tell us just how that damaged those parts of your body so badly that they had to be removed?" This could be very embarrassing if you, as a pleader, just heard that she had this operation and decided to throw in such allegation, without good medical authority to back you up.

Reply to Counterclaim and Answer

The old Common Law practice, which we inherited from England, and which is now completely abolished by our 1954 Rules of Civil Procedure, required a series of pleadings to get to the issue. There was a lapse of time between each pleading, and in many cases it would be six months before there was a claim asserted on one side and a complete denial on the other. Rule 1.7(a) provides the clear intent that there shall be only two pleadings to the issue: "* * * a complaint and an answer * * *." There are, however, instances where more than just this is required.

A reply to a counterclaim "denominated as such" is required. Simple logic will require such, because a claim has been asserted by the defendant against the plaintiff. It is advisable, therefore, to scan the defendant's pleadings served upon you, to see if it does contain a counterclaim. It may not be so clearly "denominated as such." There should be a sub-title in the answer, and the caption of the paper should also indicate that a counterclaim is asserted; but some have been seen without these "warning flags." You must, of course, serve your reply to such counterclaim within 20 days.[39]

When do you reply to an answer, which sets up a defense to which you have an affirmative reply? The only clue you will find in the rule is: "* * * the court may order a reply to an answer."[40] This always puts the pleader in a quandary; but why take a chance? You have two possible courses of action. You may pursue both. First: You may file a motion for leave to reply to the answer; exhibiting with your motion your proposed reply. Secondly: You may move the court for leave to amend your complaint by filing an alternative allegation stating the proposition raised as an issue of your own.

In contract work you will probably encounter this situation more often than in tort work. Assume, however, that you have sued the railroad and its answer exhibits a release for an amount of money equal only to the medical expenses (which it was already obligated to pay), and your injured employee had a permanent injury. You would obviously have to raise an issue on this. Should you do it by merely moving the court for leave to reply and tendering a reply of absence of consideration for a release; or, would you consider amending your complaint to allege, in an alternative allegation:

> That after plaintiff was injured and while in the hospital under opiates, suffering from his injuries, his superior in the railroad came to him and demanded that he sign a release form, in order that his medical expense could be paid and that he could receive further medical care; that filled with apprehension for his future and after much haranging by his employer he signed it solely to get medical treatment and for no other consideration; that the anxiety and worry of this event greatly aggravated his condition and caused him such anxiety and mental anguish that he developed ulcers which further permanently disabled him.

Thus, we see how an amendment to your original claim may "turn the tables" on your adversary and be more effective than a mere "reply" to his "answer"; yet also serve the same purpose!

WHEN IS FREE ENTERPRISE IN PERIL?

"When a strong central government persists in extending its supervision over private business, ownership, industry and the actions of private citizens, the existence of free enterprise is in peril, and the tenets of democracy are in jeopardy."

From a speech by Chief Justice B.K. Roberts at Stetson University College of Law, St. Petersburg, Florida, December 8, 1962.

Florida's investor-owned taxpaying electric companies believe that government-in-the-power-business is today's outstanding example of "Free enterprise in peril." It needn't be. Because when all Americans know the facts . . . That under free enterprise there has never been a shortage of Electricity in this country . . . in peace or war . . . That investor-owned electric companies pay taxes rather than drain away taxpayer's dollars . . . That America's electric companies are ready and willing to provide all the electric power our growing nation can use.

When these facts are understood, an informed public will wonder, along with us, why free enterprise electric companies must plead for their right to provide the expanded service all Americans want and need . . . in fact, plead for the right to pay taxes! YOUR thought and action could bring an early end to this serious situation.

Integration Rule*

of The Florida Bar

Pursuant to the inherent powers of the Supreme Court of Florida, the Integration Rule of The Florida Bar is hereby amended to read as follows:

PREAMBLE

To inculcate in its members the principles of duty and service to the public, to improve the administration of justice, and to advance the science of jurisprudence, the following principles are expressly adopted by this Court:

(a) The Florida Bar, a body created by and existing under the authority of this Court, is charged with the maintenance of the highest standards and obligations of the profession of law, and to that end is vested by this Court, in the exercise of its inherent powers over The Florida Bar as an official arm of this Court, with the necessary powers and authority.

(b) Attorneys admitted to practice law in Florida are a part of the judicial system of Florida and officers of its courts.

(c) Persons of integrity and good character only shall be permitted to practice law in Florida.

(d) This Court has the inherent power and duty to prescribe the qualifications that shall be required for admission to practice law, to admit suitable persons to practice law, to prescribe standards of conduct for lawyers, to determine what constitutes grounds for discipline of lawyers, to discipline for cause attorneys admitted to practice law in Florida, and to revoke the license of every lawyer whose unfitness to practice law has been duly established.

(e) All of the members of The Florida Bar have taken an oath to support the Constitution and the laws of this state and of the United States. As officers of the court, they are charged with obedience to these laws, both in and out of court, and with the duty to observe the high standards of the profession. A license to practice law is a proclamation by this Court that the holder is one to whom the public may entrust professional matters. The lawyer must be true to that trust and to his professional relationship to his client, whether such client be a public body or a private individual.

Article I
NAME

The name of the body created by this Rule shall be THE FLORIDA BAR.

Article II
MEMBERSHIP

1. All persons licensed to practice law in this state shall be active members of The Florida Bar immediately upon the issuance of license to practice by this Court.

* As revised by the Supreme Court of Florida on 6 December 1955, 17 November 1958, 11 October 1961, and 13 December 1961. All amendments ordered by the Supreme Court of Florida prior to 1 July 1963 are incorporated herein.

2. No person shall engage in any way in the practice of law in this state unless such person is an active member of The Florida Bar in good standing except that a practicing attorney of another state, in good standing, who has professional business in a court of record of this state may, upon motion, be permitted to practice for the purpose of such business only, when it is made to appear that he has associated and appearing with him in such business an active member of The Florida Bar.

3. A member of The Florida Bar in good standing may, upon petition to and with the approval of the Board of Governors, resign from The Florida Bar and, thereupon, unless again admitted, shall not practice law in this state. A member who has resigned may be admitted again upon full compliance with the rules and regulations governing admissions to the Bar.

4. Any member of The Florida Bar who shall have attained the age of 65 years, or who shall have practiced law in the State of Florida for 35 years, or who shall be physically disabled to the extent that he cannot engage in the practice of law, may retire from The Florida Bar upon petition to and approval by the Board of Governors. A retired member of The Florida Bar shall not be privileged to practice law or be required to pay dues. A retired member may be reinstated to active membership upon application to and approval by the Board of Governors.

5. A lawyer who has been adjudged insane or mentally incompetent shall be suspended from the practice of law. If an order of restoration is entered by a court having jurisdiction, he may apply to the Board of Governors for reinstatement on the roll of attorneys.

6. It shall be the duty of each member of The Florida Bar immediately to advise the Executive Director of any change of mailing address or military status.

7. Professional service corporations organized under The Professional Service Corporation Act are not prohibited by this article from engaging in the practice of law, so long as such corporation and all of its shareholders, officers, directors, agents and employees who are members of The Florida Bar comply with the applicable provisions of the Integration Rule and By-Laws of The Florida Bar.

Article III
BOARD OF GOVERNORS

1. The Board of Governors shall be the governing body of The Florida Bar. The Board shall consist of the President of The Florida Bar, the President-elect, the President of the Junior Bar Section, the President-elect of the Junior Bar Section who shall not be entitled to vote except in the absence of the President of the Junior Bar Section, and representatives elected from the active members of The Florida Bar in each judicial circuit on the basis of one member for each circuit having 300 active members of The Florida Bar, or fraction thereof, and in circuits having more than 300 active members, one for each 300 active members or fraction thereof; with a limit of not more than three representatives for any one judicial circuit.

2. The members of the Board of Governors from each judicial circuit shall be nominated and elected by the active members of The Florida Bar residing in such judicial circuit. Each elected member shall hold office for two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. Elections in odd numbered circuits shall be held in odd numbered years, and elections in even numbered circuits shall be held in even numbered years. The By-Laws shall provide for all nominations and elections of members of the Board of Governors. Newly elected members shall take office at the conclusion of the annual meeting of The Florida Bar following election to office. Any vacancy on the Board of Governors arising in the office of representative from a judicial circuit shall be filled by vote of the remaining members of the Board for the unexpired term, from the active membership of such circuit.

3. The Board of Governors shall have the power and the duty fully to administer this Rule, including the power to employ necessary personnel, and to publish The Florida Bar Journal, which shall be the official publication of The Florida Bar. The Board of Governors shall adopt, amend or rescind the By-Laws in the manner provided in this Rule, and it shall adopt a common seal.

Article IV

1. The officers of The Florida Bar shall be a President, a President-elect, and an Executive Director.

2. A President-elect shall be elected each year in the manner prescribed by the By-Laws, and shall take office as President-elect for the following year at the conclusion of the annual meeting following election to office. The President-elect shall take office as President at the conclusion of the annual meeting following his term as President-elect.

3. In the event the President is absent or unable to act, his duties shall be performed by the President-elect; and in the event of the death or resignation of the President, the President-elect shall serve as President during the remainder of the term of the office thus vacated, and then shall serve as President for the term for which he was elected. In the event of the death or disability of both the President and the President-elect, the Board of Governors shall elect an Acting President of The Florida Bar to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting.

4. No active member of The Florida Bar shall be ineligible for election to the office of President or President-lect by reason of the fact that as a representative or representative-elect from a judicial circuit he is a member or member-elect of the Board of Governors; but anyone elected to the office of President or President-elect shall be entitled to cast only one vote on matters of business coming before the Board for consideration.

5. The Executive Director shall be chosen annually by the Board of Governors. He shall perform the duties of and serve as the Treasurer, and shall perform such other executive, editorial and administrative duties as may be assigned to him by the Integration Rule, the By-Laws, and by the Board of Governors. He shall furnish bond as directed by the Board of Governors.

Article V

The business to be transacted at special meetings shall be as is specified in the call, which shall include the business set forth in the petition and such other matters as may be specified by the Board of Governors.

3. At least 20 days' notice of all meetings of The Florida Bar shall be given to the membership.

Article VII

All such by-laws, amendments, alterations or repeals shall be promptly published in The Florida Bar Journal. The action of the members of The Florida Bar, or the Board of Governors, in this respect, may be the subject of a petition for review to be filed in this Court within 30 days after such publication. The petition shall be signed by at least 25 active members of The Florida Bar. This Court may consider the petition for review in such manner as it deems proper and may approve, modify or disapprove the action under review.

Article VIII

1. On or before January 1st of each year every active member of The Florida Bar shall pay annual dues to The Florida Bar in such an amount as shall be set at an annual meeting, and shall also file with the Executive Director a statement setting forth his business and residential address and any other information that may be required by the Board of Governors, provided that at no annual meeting shall the dues be fixed at more than $25.00 per annum.

2. When any member is in arrears in the payment of dues for one month, the Executive Director shall send written notice by registered or certified mail to such member at his last business address. Within 90 days after the posting of the notice, such member may pay his dues in full, together with a delinquency charge of five dollars. Upon failure to make these payments within the 90-day period, he shall become a delinquent member, entitled to none of the privileges of membership in The Florida Bar, and shall not practice law in this state. He may thereafter reinstate this membership upon petition to and approval by the Board of Governors and the payment of all fees and charges owing by him, including a reinstatement fee of ten dollars.

3. Dues shall not be payable until January 1st next following date of admission to The Florida Bar.

4. The Executive Director shall furnish the county judges and the clerks of all courts of record in each county a list of all active members in good standing in their respective counties and shall furnish corrections and additions to such list as occasion may require. A list of all active members in good standing in the state, and corrections and additions, shall likewise be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

5. The annual dues of The Florida Bar shall not include the dues of local or regional voluntary bar associations, and shall not be shared with such associations. The Florida Bar may, however, as it sees fit, cooperate with and encourage local or regional voluntary bar associations.

At each annual meeting of The Florida Bar, the Board of Governors shall present a financial statement of the receipts and disbursements of The Florida Bar. The annual financial statement shall be published in The Florida Bar Journal, and shall also be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

2. No member of the Board of Governors, and no member or officer of The Florida Bar, other than the Executive Director and the personnel employed in his office, and except as may be authorized pursuant to Article XI hereof, shall receive compensation, but any such person may, with approval of the Board of Governors, be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for The Florida Bar.

Article X
RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The Court adopts, as a code of ethics applicable to the members of The Florida Bar, the Canons of Ethics for Judges and Attorneys. Rules A and B, promulgated by this Court on January 27, 1941, and the Rules of Conduct adopted on the same date, as published on pages 3210 through 3221, Florida Statutes 1957, together with such amendments thereto as are now adopted or may be adopted by this Court.

Article XI
RULES OF DISCIPLINE

The exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court over the discipline of persons admitted to the practice of law shall be administered in the following manner subject to the supervision and review of the Court.

RULE 11.01: PRINCIPLES AND DEFINITIONS

(1) Notice and knowledge of rules. Every member of The Florida Bar is within the jurisdiction of this Court and its agencies under this Rule and is charged with notice and held to know the provisions of this rule and the standards of ethical and professional conduct prescribed by this Court.

(2) Process. Every member of The Florida Bar is charged with notice of the provisions of Section 6 of Article II relating to change of mailing address or military status and that mailing by registered or certified mail of papers or notices prescribed in these rules to the last mailing address of an attorney as shown by the official records in the office of the Executive Director of The Florida Bar shall be sufficient notice and service unless this Court shall direct otherwise.

(3) Definitions. Wherever used in these rules the following words or terms shall have the meaning herein set forth unless the use thereof shall clearly indicate a different meaning:

(a) The accused or accused attorney: a member of The Florida Bar who has been accused of misconduct or whose conduct is under investigation, but as to which conduct there has been no finding of either probable cause or no probable cause.

(b) Bar Counsel: a member of The Florida Bar appointed to represent The Florida Bar in any proceeding under these rules.

(c) The Board, or the Board of Governors: The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

(d) Complainant or complaining witness: any person who has complained of the conduct of any member of The Florida Bar to any officer or agency of The Florida Bar.

(e) This Court, or the Court: The Supreme Court of the State of Florida.

(f) Court of this State: a state court authorized and established by the Constitution or laws of the State of Florida.

(g) Executive Committee: The Executive Committee of the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

(h) Executive Director: the Executive Director of The Florida Bar.

(i) Probable cause: a finding by an authorized agency that there is cause to believe that a member of The Florida Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action.

(j) Referee: a member of The Florida Bar appointed to conduct proceedings as provided under these rules.

(k) Respondent: a member of The Florida Bar against whom there has been a finding of probable cause.

RULE 11.02: BREACHES OF DISCIPLINE

The following principles, among others expressly adopted by this Court, shall govern the conduct of members of The Florida Bar in their capacity as attorneys and shall govern all proceedings for discipline of such members: A license to practice law confers no vested right to the holder thereof, but is a conditional privilege revokable for cause. The primary purpose of discipline of attorneys is the protection of the public, the legal profession, and the administration of justice, as well as the discipline of members of the Bar. It is the responsibility of this Court to purge the Bar of those unworthy to practice law in this State and it is the obligation of The Florida Bar and the individual members thereof to give unlimited cooperation and assistance to this Court in the discharge of this responsibility. The Florida Bar is expressly delegated the authority, power and duty to maintain high ethical standards and to take such proceedings as authorized in these rules to insure such standards in the Bar of Florida.

(1) Oath. Violation of the oath taken by an attorney to support the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Florida is ground for disciplinary action. Membership in, alliance with, or support of the Communist Party or any organization, group or party advocating or dedicated to the overthrow of the government by violence or by any means in violation of the Constitution of the United States or Constitution of this State shall be a violation of the oath.

(2) Code of ethics. Violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted by Article X of the Integration Rule is a cause for discipline.

(3) Moral conduct.

(a) Standards. The standards of professional conduct to be observed by members of the Bar are not limited to the observance of rules and avoidance of prohibitive acts, and the enumeration herein of certain categories of misconduct as constituting grounds for discipline shall not be deemed to be all-inclusive nor shall the failure to specify any particular act of misconduct be construed as tolerance thereof. The commission by a lawyer of any act contrary to honesty, justice or good morals, whether the act is committed in the course of his relations as an attorney or otherwise, whether committed within or outside the State of Florida, and whether or not the act is a felony or misdemeanor, constitutes a cause for discipline.

(b) Crime. If the alleged misconduct constitutes a felony or misdemeanor, The Florida Bar may initiate disciplinary action whether or not the accused attorney has been tried, acquitted or convicted in a court for the alleged criminal offense; however, the Board of Governors may, in its discretion, withhold prosecution of disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of criminal proceedings against an accused attorney if the Board believes that prosecution thereof might tend to prejudice the accused attorney in his defense or the State in the prosecution of the criminal proceedings.

(4) Trust funds and fees. Money or other property entrusted to an attorney for a specific purpose is held in trust and must be applied only to that purpose. Money and other property of clients coming into the hands of an attorney are not subject to counterclaim or setoff for attorney fees, and a refusal to account for and deliver over such property and money upon demand shall be deemed a conversion. This is not to preclude the retention of money or other property upon which the lawyer has a valid lien for his services or to preclude the payment of agreed fees from the proceeds of transactions or collections. Controversies as to the amount of fees are not grounds for disciplinary proceedings unless the amount demanded is extortionate or the demand is fraudulent.

(5) Solicitation. The solicitation of professional employment by advertisement, runners, solicitors, investigators, or in any other manner shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action. Payment of compensation shall not be a necessary element of proof of solicitation.

(6) Discipline by foreign jurisdiction. A final adjudication by a court or other authorized agency of another state in a disciplinary proceeding that an attorney licensed to practice in that state is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action shall be considered as conclusive proof of such misconduct in a disciplinary proceeding in this state.

RULE 11.03: DISCIPLINARY AGENCIES

The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall be administered in the manner hereinafter stated. The following entities are hereby designated as agencies of the Supreme Court for this purpose and with the following responsibilities, jurisdiction and powers:

(1) The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar is assigned the responsibility of maintaining high ethical standards among all its members. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar shall supervise and conduct disciplinary proceedings in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(a) Executive Committee. All acts and discretion required of the Board of Governors under these Rules of Discipline may be exercised by its Executive Committee between meetings of the Board of Governors except the entry of final judgment.

(b) Executive Director. All matters to be filed with or served upon the Board of Governors shall be addressed to the Board of Governors and filed with the Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be the custodian of the official records of The Florida Bar.

(2) Grievance committees. There shall be such grievance committees as are herein provided, each of which shall have the authority and jurisdiction required to perform the functions hereinafter assigned to them, and which shall be constituted and appointed as follows:

(a) Circuit grievance committees. There shall be not less than one grievance committee in each judicial circuit of this State, and as many more in each judicial circuit as shall be found desirable by the Board of Governors. Such committees shall be designated as Judicial Circuit Grievance Committees, and in circuits having more than one committee they shall be identified by alphabetical designation in the order of creation such as "First Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee 'A,'" "First Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee 'B,'" and so forth. Such committees shall be continuing bodies notwithstanding changes in membership and they shall have jurisdiction and the power to proceed in all matters properly before them.

(b) Special grievance committees. The Board of Governors may from time to time appoint special grievance committees for the purpose of such investigations as may be assigned in accordance with these rules. Such committees shall continue only until the completion of tasks assigned, and they shall have jurisdiction and power to proceed in all matters so assigned to them. All provisions concerning grievance committees shall be applicable to special grievance committees except those concerning terms of office and other restrictions thereon as may be imposed by the Board of Governors. Any vacancies occurring in such a committee shall be filled by the Board of Governors, and such changes in members shall not affect the jurisdiction and power of the committee to proceed in all matters properly before it.

(c) Membership, appointment. Each grievance committee shall be appointed by the Board of Governors and shall consist of not less than three members of The Florida Bar.

(d) Terms. The terms of the members shall begin on the first day of July and shall end on the next succeeding 30th day of June or until such time as their successors are appointed and qualified.

(e) Officers. There shall be a chairman designated by the Board of Governors and a vice-chairman and secretary designated by the chairman on each committee.

(f) Oath. Each member of a committee shall subscribe to an oath to fulfill the duties of his office. Such oaths shall be filed with the Executive Director and placed with the official records of The Florida Bar.

(g) Removal. Any member may be removed from his office by the Board of Governors.

(h) Quorum, vote. A majority of a committee but not less than three members shall constitute a quorum. All recommendations of probable cause shall be made by the concurrence of not less than three members.

(3) Referees. The Board of Governors shall annually or as often as necessary recommend members of The Florida Bar to this Court to act as referees in disciplinary proceedings. This Court will certify annually or as often as necessary a panel of those approved to act as referees.

(4) Staff counsel. The Board of Governors may employ staff counsel for The Florida Bar to perform such duties under the direction of the Executive Director as may be assigned.

(5) Bar counsel. The Board of Governors from time to time shall designate a panel of members of The Florida Bar to serve as bar counsel to represent The Florida Bar in such disciplinary proceedings as the Board of Governors may direct. Bar Counsel shall not be a member of the Board of Governors, a grievance committee or a member of the panel of referees.

(6) Jurisdiction and powers. The Board of Governors, grievance committees and referees have such jurisdiction and powers as are necessary to conduct the proper and speedy disposition of any investigation or cause, including the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, to take or cause to be taken the deposition of witnesses and to order the production of books, records or other documentary evidence. Each member of such agencies has power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses in any matter within the jurisdiction of the agency.

(7) Disqualification as trier and attorney for respondent. No member or former member of the Board of Governors and no employee or former employee of The Florida Bar shall represent any party in proceedings provided for in these rules until at least three (3) years from the date of expiration of the term for which he was appointed or elected or subsequent to the date of the termination of his employment; nor shall any member or former member of any grievance committee represent an accused attorney or act as referee in any such proceeding during the term for which he was appointed and for one year thereafter; nor in any case shall a member or former member of a grievance committee or a referee represent an accused attorney or act as bar counsel in any proceeding investigated or heard to any extent before him in such offices.

RULE 11.04: INVESTIGATION BY GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

(1) Purpose

(a) Investigation. The purpose and function of a grievance committee is to conduct investigations of alleged misconduct of a member of The Florida Bar justifying disciplinary action and to determine whether or not to recommend a finding of probable cause by the Board of Governors.

(b) Non-adversary. The proceedings of such grievance committees may be informal and shall not assume the character of an adversary proceeding. The committee shall not be bound by the Rules of Evidence.

(c) No delay for civil or criminal proceedings. An investigation shall not be deferred or suspended without the approval of the Board of Governors even though the accused is made a party of civil litigation, or is a defendant or is acquitted in a criminal action, notwithstanding that either of such proceedings involves the subject matter of the investigation. The acquittal of an accused in a criminal proceeding shall not necessarily be a bar to disciplinary proceedings nor shall the findings, judgment or decree of any court in civil proceedings necessarily be binding in disciplinary proceedings.

(2) The accused. The accused may be required to testify and to produce evidence as any other witness, and when so required he may be accompanied by counsel. The accused has no right to be present or to be heard during an investigation, but before any finding of probable cause is recommended the accused shall be advised in general terms the nature of the conduct which is being investigated, and he shall be given an opportunity to make a statement, personally or by counsel, verbally or in writing, sworn or unsworn, explaining, refuting or admitting the alleged misconduct. The accused shall have no right to present other testimony or evidence, and he shall have no right of confrontation or cross-examination.

(3) Testimony of witnesses; contempt. The accused attorney or any other person who is subpoenaed to appear and give testimony or to produce books, papers or documents, and who refuses to appear or produce such books, papers or documents before the grievance committee or who, having been duly sworn to testify, refuses to answer any proper question, may be cited for contempt of this Court. Any contempt proceedings instituted or prosecuted during the progress of an investigation or trial covered by the confidential rule shall be conducted in a manner consistent with such rule and shall not be made public except under conditions prescribed in such rule.

(4) Complainant or complaining witness. The complainant or complaining witness is not a party to the disciplinary proceeding and shall have no right to be present during the grievance committee proceedings except when called to give evidence and when so called may be accompanied by counsel. Neither the complainant nor his counsel shall have the right of confrontation or cross-examination of the accused or any other witness. Neither unwillingness nor neglect of the complaining witness to cooperate, nor settlement, compromise, nor restitution will excuse the completion of an investigation. The complaining witness shall have no right of appeal.

(5) Record and report of grievance committee

(a) No recommendation of probable cause. If a grievance committee upon termination of its investigation does not recommend a finding of probable cause, the committee shall dispose of its file in the manner directed by the Board of Governors. If the grievance committee has notified the accused of the investigation, then the committee shall notify the accused of the action of the committee. The failure of a grievance committee to recommend probable cause shall not preclude further proceedings.

(b) Recommendation of probable cause. If a grievance committee recommends a finding of probable cause, the committee shall prepare a record of its investigation and a report and file the same with the Executive Director, the report being filed in duplicate. The record and report shall be in such form and with such content as shall be prescribed by the Board of Governors. The Executive Director shall furnish a copy of the report to the accused, and a copy of the record shall be made available to the accused at his expense.

(6) Status reports. The status or disposition of all disciplinary matters considered by the grievance committees shall be reported quarterly to the Board of Governors on a report form prescribed by the Executive Director.

RULE 11.05: REVIEW OF GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE REPORT; FINDING OF PROBABLE CAUSE AND ASSIGNMENT FOR TRIAL

No formal complaint shall be filed by The Florida Bar in disciplinary proceedings against a member of the Bar unless the Board of Governors shall first find that probable cause exists to believe that the accused is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action or unless the accused has been determined or adjudged to be guilty of the commission of a felony. The finding of probable cause shall be made as hereinafter provided.

(1) Review of grievance committee report. The Board of Governors shall review the record and report filed by the grievance committee recommending a finding of probable cause and may (1) find probable cause, (2) find no probable cause, or (3) return the record and report to the grievance committee for further proceedings. If the Board of Governors shall find probable cause or no probable cause, the Executive Director shall notify the accused attorney, the grievance committee and may notify the complaining witness.

(2) Finding of no probable cause. A finding of no probable cause by the Board of Governors shall be final and after such finding no further proceedings shall be had in the matter by The Florida Bar.

(3) Finding of probable cause. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, sua sponte or on the basis of the report of any regular or special grievance committee or on the recommendation and report of bar counsel, may by majority vote find probable cause and direct the filing of a formal complaint against an attorney as hereinafter provided. Provided, however, that if such finding is not based upon grievance committee investigation or report of bar counsel in pending proceedings against the accused, then before such finding is made the accused shall be advised in general terms the nature of the conduct which is being considered, and he shall be given an opportunity to make a statement, personally or by counsel, verbally or in writing, sworn or unsworn, explaining, refuting or admitting the alleged misconduct. The accused shall have no right to present other testimony or evidence, and he shall have no right of confrontation or cross-examination.

(4) Assignment for trial. The Board of Governors upon making a finding of probable cause shall forthwith appoint a referee to try the cause, the appointment to be from the list approved by the Supreme Court; provided, however, that the Board may defer or withhold prosecution when in the opinion of the Board further proceedings would not be in the interest of the public or The Florida Bar.

RULE 11.06: TRIAL BY REFEREE AND ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

When a finding has been made by the Board of Governors that there is cause to believe that a member of The Florida Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action, and such finding of probable cause has been assigned for trial before a referee, the proceeding thereafter shall be an adversary proceeding in which the accused is the respondent and which shall be conducted as follows:

(1) Venue. The trial shall be held in the county in which an alleged offense occurred, or in the county where the respondent resides or practices law or last practiced law in Florida, whichever shall be designated by the Board of Governors; provided, however, that if the respondent is not a resident of Florida and the alleged offense is not committed in Florida, the trial shall be held in a county designated by the Board of Governors; and provided further that the trial may be held in any county by agreement of the parties.

(2) Style of proceedings. All proceedings instituted by The Florida Bar shall be styled "The Florida Bar, complainant v. (name of respondent), respondent."

(3) Nature of proceedings.

(a) Administrative in character. A disciplinary proceeding is neither civil nor criminal but is a quasijudicial administrative proceeding.

(b) Discovery. Discovery shall be available to the parties in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) Bar counsel

(a) Appointment. Upon assignment of a cause for trial the Board of Governors shall appoint bar counsel to prosecute the cause in the name of The Florida Bar.

(b) Duties. Bar counsel shall make such investigation as in his opinion is necessary and shall prepare and prosecute with utmost diligence any case assigned to him.

(5) Pleadings. Pleadings may be informal and shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) Complaint; consolidation and severance

(i) Filing. The complaint against the respondent shall be filed by bar counsel within thirty (30) days after his appointment, or as soon thereafter as practical.

(ii) Content. The complaint shall set forth the particular act or acts of conduct for which the attorney is sought to be disciplined.

(iii) Joinder of charges and respondents; severance. A complaint may embrace any number of charges against one or more respondents, and charges may be against any one or any number of respondents, all as the Board of Governors may direct; but a severance may be granted by the referee when the ends of justice require it.

(b) Answer and motion. Respondent may answer the complaint, and as a part thereof or by separate motion may challenge only the sufficiency of the complaint and the jurisdiction of the forum. All other defenses shall be incorporated in respondent's answer. All pleadings of the respondent must be filed within twenty (20) days of service of a copy of the complaint upon him.

(c) Reply. If respondent's answer shall contain any new matter or affirmative defense, a reply thereto may be filed within ten (10) days of the date of service of a copy upon bar counsel, but failure to file such a reply shall not prejudice The Florida Bar. All affirmative allegations in the respondent's answer shall be considered as denied by The Florida Bar.

(d) Disposition of motions. Hearings upon motions may be deferred until the final hearing; and whenever heard, rulings thereon may be reserved until termination of the final hearing.

(e) Filing of pleadings

(i) Complaint and answer. The complaint and answer of other appropriate pleading shall be filed in quadruplicate with the Executive Director. If there is more than one attorney charged in the complaint, one additional copy of all pleadings shall be filed for each respondent in excess of one.

(A) Service. Service of the complaint and answer or other appropriate pleading filed by the respondent replying to the complaint shall be served upon the proper person by the Executive Director as elsewhere provided in these rules.

(B) To referee. The Executive Director shall transmit such original pleadings to the referee before trial or at such other time as may be directed by the referee.

(ii) Subsequent pleadings. With reference to all subsequent pleadings and motions, the original shall be filed with the referee and a copy thereof sent to the Executive Director and to each respondent in the proceeding.

(f) Amendment. Pleadings may be amended by order of the referee, and a reasonable time shall be given within which to respond thereto.

(6) Notice of final hearing. The cause may be set down for trial by either party or the referee upon not less than ten (10) days notice. The trial shall be held as soon as possible following the expiration of ten (10) days from the filing of respondent's answer, or if no answer is filed, then from the date when such answer is due.

(7) The respondent. The respondent may be called as a witness by The Florida Bar to make specific and complete disclosure of all matters material to the issues. When the respondent attorney is subpoenaed to appear and give testimony or to produce books, papers or documents, and he refuses to appear or to produce such books, papers or documents, or, having been duly sworn to testify, he refuses to answer any proper question, he may be cited for contempt of this court.

(8) Complaining witness. The complaining witness shall have no rights other than those of any other witness; he has no right to be present during a hearing or trial but he may be called upon to testify and produce evidence as any other witness. Neither unwillingness nor neglect of the complaining witness to cooperate, nor settlement, compromise nor restitution will excuse failure to complete any trial.

(9) Findings and judgment

(a) Record and report of referee. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of a trial before a referee, or as soon thereafter as practical, he shall make a report and enter it as part of the record. The referee's report shall include (1) a finding of fact as to each item of misconduct of which the respondent is charged, (2) recommendations as to whether or not the respondent should be found guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary measures, (3) recommendations as to the disciplinary measures to be applied, (4) a statement of the costs of the proceedings and recommendations as to the manner in which costs should be taxed. The costs shall include court reporters' fees, witness fees and traveling expenses, and reasonable traveling and out of pocket expenses of the referee and bar counsel, if any. Within five (5) days after the entry of findings of the referee, the record of the proceeding shall be filed with the Executive Director. Within five (5) days after such filing, a notice thereof together with a copy of the report of the referee shall be served upon bar counsel and upon the respondent by the Executive Director.

(b) Statement of parties. Bar counsel and respondent may each file a statement in support of or in opposition to the findings and recommendations of the referee. Such statement, if filed, shall be filed with the Executive Director within ten (10) days after service of a copy of the report of the referee or within five (5) days after receipt of such statement from an opposing party, and shall become a part of the record.

(c) Review and entry of judgment

(i) Review. The entire record, which shall consist of the complaint and all other pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits, report of the referee and statement of the respondent in opposition thereto, if any, shall be referred to and read by a reviewing committee consisting of five members of the Board of Governors designated by the President. Such committee shall prepare a written report indicating the concurring and dissenting members of the committee as to the guilt of the respondent and as to its recommendations for disciplinary measures, if any. The report of the reviewing committee shall be considered by the Board; provided, however, that in the event less than four members of the committee concur as to the guilt of the respondent, or in the event the Board shall fail to approve the report of the committee as to the guilt of the respondent, then a quorum of the Board shall review the entire record in such manner as to insure protection of the rights of the accused.

(ii) Judgment. The Board of Governors shall enter an appropriate judgment in accordance with its findings which shall be signed by the President and a copy of which shall be furnished to the respondent. If the respondent is found not guilty, the judgment shall dismiss the complaint. If the respondent is found guilty, the judgment shall set forth the disciplinary measures to be enforced. The costs shall be taxed in the discretion of the Board of Governors.

(iii) Filing. If the respondent is found guilty and the judgment includes public reprimand, suspension from practice or disbarment, the Executive Director shall file the entire record with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

(10) The record

(a) Reporting of testimony. All hearings at which testimony is presented shall be reported and the transcript of the testimony shall be filed in the cause.

(b) Contents. The record shall include all items properly filed in the cause including pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits in evidence, findings and report of the referee, statements of the parties and the judgment.

(11) Plea of guilty by accused or respondent. At any time during the progress of disciplinary proceedings an accused attorney or respondent may tender a plea of guilty.

(a) Before filing of complaint. If the plea is tendered before filing of a complaint by bar counsel such plea shall be tendered in writing to the Board of Governors. The Board may direct such further investigation as is warranted and formulate charges and serve such charges upon the accused so that he may enter his plea of guilty thereto in writing by filing the same with the Executive Director within ten (10) days thereafter. The Board of Governors shall enter an appropriate disciplinary judgment.

(b) After filing of complaint. If the complaint has been filed against the respondent by bar counsel he may enter a plea of guilty thereto by filing the same in writing with the referee to whom the cause has been assigned for trial and such referee shall take such testimony in relation thereto as he may be advised. The referee will file his report and the Board of Governors, upon review of the report and record received from the referee, will enter appropriate disciplinary judgment.

(c) Unconditional. A plea of guilty shall be unconditional in terms, but shall not preclude appellate review as to disciplinary measures imposed.

(d) Procedure. Except as herein provided all procedure in relation to disposition of the cause on plea of guilty shall be as elsewhere provided in these rules.

(12) Appellate review. The respondent may appeal from a judgment of the Board of Governors. Such appeal shall be made in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

RULE 11.07: DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

The judgments entered finding members of The Florida Bar guilty of misconduct shall include one or more of the following disciplinary measures:

(1) Private reprimand. A private reprimand shall be administered so as to not violate the rule concerning the confidential nature of disciplinary proceedings, and otherwise in the manner prescribed in the judgment. Due notice shall be given to the respondent of any hearing to administer the reprimand. The respondent shall appear personally, if required, and a memorandum of the hearing shall be made a part of the record of the proceeding.

(2) Probation. The respondent may be placed upon probation for a stated period of time of not less than six months nor more than three years. The judgment shall state the conditions of the probation which may include the following: Supervision of all or part of the respondent's work by a member of The Florida Bar; the making of reports to a designated agency; the satisfactory completion of a course of study or a paper on legal ethics approved by the Supreme Court. Failure to observe the conditions of the probation, or a finding of probable cause as to conduct of the respondent committed during the period of probation, shall terminate the probation. In such event, even though such finding of probable cause shall be made after the expiration of the period of probation, the judgment shall be reconsidered and an appropriate judgment shall be entered.

(3) Public reprimand. A public reprimand shall be administered in the manner prescribed in the judgment. Due notice shall be given to the respondent of any hearing set down to administer the reprimand. The respondent shall appear personally if required, and a memorandum of the hearing shall be made a part of the record of the proceeding.

(4) Suspension. The respondent may be suspended from the practice of law for an appropriate time or for a definite period of time and an indefinite period thereafter to be determined by the conditions imposed by the judgment. During such suspension the respondent shall continue to be a member of The Florida Bar but without the privilege of practicing; and upon the expiration of the suspension period and the satisfaction of all conditions accompanying the suspension, the respondent shall become eligible to all of the privileges of membership in The Florida Bar.

(5) Disbarment. A judgment of disbarment without further qualification shall be construed to be disbarment for an indefinite period of time; but the judgment may be stated to be disbarment for an indefinite period of time, or for a definite period of time and an indefinite period thereafter to be determined by the conditions imposed in the judgment. No period of disbarment shall be for less than six months. During disbarment the respondent shall not be a member of The Florida Bar. During any indefinite period of disbarment he may apply for reinstatement in the manner provided by the rule on reinstatement.

RULE 11.08: DISCIPLINE UPON CONVICTION

(1) Determination or judgment of guilt. Determination or judgment of guilt of a member of The Florida Bar by a court of competent jurisdiction upon trial or plea of any crime or offense that is a felony under the laws of this State, or under the laws under which any other court making such determination or entering such judgment exercises its jurisdiction, shall be conclusive proof of the guilt of the offense charged for the purposes of these rules. Upon such determination or entry of such judgment of guilt by any court of this State, the judge or the clerk thereof shall transmit a certified copy of such determination or judgment to the Clerk of this Court and to the Executive Director of The Florida Bar.

(2) Suspension by judgment (Florida). If such judgment of guilt is entered by a court of the State of Florida, the convicted attorney shall stand suspended as a member of The Florida Bar on the 11th day following the entry of the judgment unless he shall before that day file a petition with the Supreme Court to modify or terminate such suspension as elsewhere provided. If such petition is filed on or before the 10th day following the entry of the judgment, the suspension will be thereby deferred until entry of an order upon the petition.

(a) Petition to modify or terminate suspension. At any time after the entry of a judgment of guilt, the convicted attorney may file a petition with the Supreme Court to modify or terminate such suspension and shall serve a copy thereof upon the Executive Director. An opportunity to respond to the petition and appear at any hearing on the petition shall be afforded to The Florida Bar. If such petition is filed after the tenth day following the entry of judgment of guilt, the suspension shall remain in effect pending disposition of the petition. Modification or termination of suspension shall be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

(b) Continuation of suspension until final disposition. If an appeal is taken by the convicted attorney from the judgment of the trial court in the criminal proceeding, and on review the cause is remanded for further proceedings, the suspension shall remain in effect until the final disposition of the criminal cause unless modified or terminated by the Supreme Court as elsewhere provided.

(c) Termination of suspension. Such suspension shall continue until final disposition of the criminal cause unless sooner terminated by order of the Supreme Court as elsewhere provided. A final disposition of the criminal cause resulting in acquittal will terminate the suspension. A final termination of the criminal cause resulting in a determination or judgment of guilt shall continue the suspension until expiration of all periods for appeal and rehearing, and until after termination of disciplinary proceedings by The Florida Bar as elsewhere provided.

(3) Suspension by Supreme Court. If any such determination or judgment of guilt is entered by any court other than a court of the State of Florida, The Florida Bar may petition this Court for an order suspending the convicted attorney from the practice of law. Service of a copy of such petition shall be effected by the Clerk of this Court upon the convicted attorney who may within ten days, or such further time as this Court may allow, file a response thereto and serve a copy thereof upon the Executive Director. This Court shall direct such further proceedings as may be appropriate.

(4) Disciplinary judgment after conviction. If a determination or judgment of guilt of a felony is entered against a member of The Florida Bar and becomes final without appeal or by affirmance on appeal, such judgment shall be conclusive proof of the guilt of the offense charged. The Executive Director shall serve upon the attorney named in such determination or judgment a notice to show cause, if any there be, why appropriate disciplinary judgment should not be entered by the Board of Governors. The respondent attorney may, within 15 days, file his return with the Executive Director. The Board of Governors shall consider such return and take appropriate action and thereafter enter such disciplinary judgment as may be warranted.

(5) Appellate review. The respondent attorney may appeal from a judgment of the Board of Governors in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

RULE 11.09: RESIGNATION PENDING DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

An attorney may resign from The Florida Bar during the progress of disciplinary proceedings against him in the following manner.

(1) Definition. If a disciplinary agency is investigating the conduct of an attorney, or if such an agency has recommended probable cause, then disciplinary proceedings shall be deemed to be pending and the resignation shall be made pursuant to this rule.

(2) Petition for leave to resign. The petition for leave to resign shall be filed with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar and shall contain a statement of all past and pending disciplinary actions and criminal proceedings against the petitioner. Such statements shall describe the charges made or under investigation for professional misconduct, results of past proceedings and the status of pending investigations and proceedings. Any petition deemed by the Board of Governors to be incomplete or insufficient may in the discretion of the Board be returned for such amendment as may be required.

(3) Judgment. The Board of Governors shall consider the petition for leave to resign and the charges against the accused. If it has been shown by the petitioner in a proper and competent manner that the public interest will not be adversely affected by the granting of the petition, and that such will not adversely affect the purity of the courts nor hinder the administration of justice nor the confidence of the public in the legal profession, the Board of Governors shall enter an appropriate judgment granting leave to resign; otherwise, the petition shall be denied. If the judgment grants to the petitioner leave to resign, the judgment may require that the resignation be subject to appropriate conditions. A copy of the judgment shall be furnished to the petitioner; and if the judgment grants leave to resign a certified copy thereof, together with the supporting record, shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court. A judgment granting leave to resign shall become final and effective when approved by order of the Supreme Court.

(4) Appellate review. The petitioner may appeal from the judgment in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(5) Delay of disciplinary proceedings. The filing of a petition for leave to resign pending disciplinary proceedings shall not stay the progress of the disciplinary proceedings without the approval of the Board of Governors.

RULE 11.10: REINSTATEMENT

An attorney who has been disbarred other than by permanent disbarment, or whose resignation pending disciplinary proceedings has been accepted under conditions which allow reinstatement, may be reinstated to membership in The Florida Bar pursuant to this rule. The proceedings under this rule are not applicable to suspension for non-payment of dues.

(1) Petitions: form, contents, fingerprints

(a) Filing. The original petition for reinstatement and three copies thereof shall be in writing, verified by the petitioner, addressed to the Board of Governors and filed with the Executive Director at the office of The Florida Bar in Tallahassee. With the filing of his petition the petitioner shall furnish two sets of his fingerprints on record cards furnished by The Florida Bar for this purpose. One copy of the petition shall be promptly filed by the Executive Director with the Clerk of this Court.

(b) Form and exhibits. The petition shall be in such form and shall be accompanied by such exhibits as the Board of Governors shall prescribe. The information required concerning the petitioner may include in the discretion of the Board of Governors, any or all of the following matters in addition to such other matters as may be reasonably required to determine the fitness of the petitioner to resume the practice of law: criminal and civil judgments; disciplinary judgments; copies of income tax returns together with consents to secure original returns; occupation during disbarment and information in connection therewith; financial statements; statement of restitution of funds which were the subject matter of disciplinary proceedings.

(2) Deposit for costs. The petition shall be accompanied by a deposit in such amount as the Board of Governors shall prescribe to insure payment of reasonable costs of the proceeding. Such costs in the discretion of the Board of Governors may include court reporters' fees, witness fees and traveling expense, and reasonable traveling expense and out of pocket costs of the referee or investigative committee and attorneys for The Florida Bar.

(3) Reference of petition for hearing. The Board of Governors shall refer the petition for reinstatement for investigation. Such investigation may be by means of formal hearing and findings or otherwise. Such reference shall be in the discretion of the Board of Governors to a referee, a grievance committee of the county where the petitioner resides, or formerly resided, or to a reinstatement committee to be appointed by the Board of Governors. Provided, however, that no such reference shall be made until evidence is submitted showing that all costs assessed against the petitioner in all disciplinary proceedings have been paid.

(4) Attorneys for the Bar. When a petition for reinstatement is filed, the Board of Governors may appoint, or may request any local Bar Association to appoint, from the active members of The Florida Bar, one or more attorneys to represent The Florida Bar in the proceeding. The duties of such attorneys shall be to appear at the hearings and to prepare and present to said committee or referee evidence which, in the opinion of the committee or referee or such attorneys, should be considered in passing upon the petition.

(5) Procedure. The referee or committee to which the petition for reinstatement is referred shall conduct the investigation as a trial in the same manner, to the extent practical, as proceedings are conducted under the rule concerning trials. The matter to be investigated and decided shall be the fitness of the petitioner to resume the practice of law.

(6) Hearing, notice, evidence

(a) Notice. The committee or referee to whom the petition for reinstatement is referred shall fix a time and place for hearing, and notice thereof shall be given at least ten days prior to the hearing to the petitioner, to attorneys representing The Florida Bar, and to such other persons as may be designated by any member of the committee or the referee to which the petition is referred.

(b) Appearances. Any of said persons to whom notice is given, any other interested person, or any local bar association, may appear before said committee in support of or in opposition to the petition at any time or times fixed for hearings thereon.

(c) Failure of petitioner to be examined. For the failure of the petitioner to submit to examination as a witness pursuant to notice given, the Board of Governors shall dismiss the petition for reinstatement unless good cause is shown for such failure.

(7) Prompt hearing; report. The committee or referee to which a petition for reinstatement has been referred by the Board of Governors shall proceed to a prompt hearing, at the conclusion of which it shall make and transmit to the Board of Governors a report which shall include the findings of fact and a recommendation as to whether or not the petitioner is qualified to resume the practice of law. Such report shall be in the form prescribed by the Board of Governors.

(8) Notice of reinstatement committee's or referee's report. When the report of the committee or referee is received at the office of the Excutive Director in Tallahassee, a copy thereof shall be sent by the Executive Director to the petitioner and to the member of The Florida Bar representing the Bar and to each local bar association appearing in the proceeding. A copy of the letter of transmittal, bearing the date of mailing and the name of the person mailing the same, shall be retained in the office of The Florida Bar and shall be prima-facie evidence of the mailing thereof upon said date.

(9) Statement in opposition or support. At any time within ten days after mailing of the notice of report the petitioner or the member of The Florida Bar representing the Bar or any local bar association may file in the office of The Florida Bar in Tallahassee an original and three copies of a typewritten statement in support of or in opposition to the report.

(10) Judgment by Board of Governors. After filing of said report, the Board of Governors shall review the petition, the findings and recommendations of the committee or referee and the record before such committee or referee and shall enter an appropriate judgment. If the petitioner is found unfit to resume the practice of law, the petition shall be dismissed. If the petitioner is found fit to resume the practice of law, the judgment shall reinstate him in The Florida Bar; provided however, that the judgment may make such reinstatement conditional upon the payment of all or parts of the costs of the proceeding, and upon the making of partial or complete restitution to parties harmed by the petitioner's misconduct which led to the termination of his membership in The Florida Bar; and further provided, however, that if the petitioner has been removed from membership in The Florida Bar for more than ten (10) years, the reinstatement may be conditioned upon the furnishing of such proof of competency as may be required by the judgment in the discretion of the Board of Governors, which proof may include certification by the Florida Board of Bar Examiners of the successful completion of all examinations for admission to The Florida Bar subsequent to the entry of the judgment. A copy of the judgment shall be forthwith served upon the petitioner.

(11) Appellate review. The petitioner may apppeal from the judgment in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(12) Successive petitions. No petition for reinstatement shall be filed within two years following an adverse judgment upon a petition for reinstatement filed by or on behalf of the same person.

RULE 11.11: APPELLATE REVIEW

All judgments entered in proceedings under these Rules of Discipline shall be subject to appeal by petition to the Supreme Court in the following manner:

(1) Appellant. Any party to a proceeding other than The Florida Bar may appeal from an order or judgment entered under these rules; provided, however, the respondent and The Florida Bar may appeal from an order entered in contempt proceedings.

(2) Appointment of bar counsel. Within 30 days after a copy of a petition for review is filed with the Executive Director, the Board of Governors shall appoint bar counsel to represent the Florida Bar in the appeal.

(3) Procedure. Appeals shall be only in accordance with the following procedure.

(a) Petition for review. The appeal shall be commenced by filing a petition for review with the Supreme Court and two copies thereof with the Executive Director within 30 days after entry of judgment or order to be reviewed. If the appeal is from a circuit court, then within such 30 days another copy of the petition shall be filed with the clerk of such court. If the State of Florida is the appellee, then within such 30 days another copy of the petition shall be served upon the state attorney. The filing of the petition and copies is jurisdictional, and failure to file the petition and such copies within such 30-day period shall preclude an appeal.

(b) Record on appeal. If the appeal is from a judgment of the Board of Governors, the Executive Director shall forward the entire record to the Supreme Court within ten days after the filing with the Executive Director of a copy of the petition for review. If the appeal is from a circuit court, the clerk of the court shall forward the entire record to the Supreme Court within ten days after the filing with such clerk of a copy of the petition for review, or within ten days after the filing of the transcript of testimony, whichever shall last occur.

(c) Briefs. The petitioner shall file a brief within 30 days after the filing of the record with the Supreme Court; and if not filed the appeal shall be dismissed. A reply brief may be filed within 20 days after service of a copy of petitioner's brief.

(d) Oral argument. Oral argument shall be allowed in all appeals and upon expiration of the time for filing the reply brief the Clerk shall assign the cause for oral argument.

(e) Burden upon appellant. Upon review the burden shall be upon the appellant to show wherein the judgment from which the appeal is taken is erroneous, unlawful or unjustified.

(f) Judgment of Supreme Court. After review the Supreme Court shall enter an appropriate order or judgment. If no appeal is taken from a judgment or order entered under these rules, and if a certified copy thereof has been filed with the Court, the Court shall enter a judgment thereon.

(4) Precedence of proceedings. Appeals in disciplinary proceedings shall take precedence over all other civil causes in the Supreme Court.

(5) Extraordinary writs. All applications for extraordinary writs which are concerned with disciplinary proceedings under these rules of discipline shall be made to the Supreme Court.

(6) Florida Appellate Rules. To the extent necessary to implement this rule and if not inconsistent herewith, the Florida Appellate Rules shall be applicable to appeals in disciplinary proceedings.

RULE 11.12: CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS

All matters including files, preliminary investigation reports, inter-office memoranda, records of investigations and the records in trials and other proceedings under these Rules, excepting only those matters in connection with proceedings initiated in circuit courts, are all property of The Florida Bar. All of such matters having to do with (1) investigation and other proceedings to determine probable cause, (2) trials upon a finding of probable cause, and (3) resignations pending disciplinary proceedings, shall be confidential to all parties participating therein or having knowledge thereof except as otherwise provided in these rules. All of such persons shall be admonished by the agency before whom they appear to observe the confidential nature of such proceedings. Provided, however, that the confidential nature of such proceedings is subject to the following exceptions:

(1) Public record. Those parts of proceedings prior to trial which are required to be served upon an accused, and the record of the proceeding as elsewhere defined, shall become public information in the following instances:

(a) Request of accused or respondent. If the accused or respondent shall file in the proceeding a request in writing that the proceedings be made public information.

(b) Circuit court. If the proceeding is in a circuit court; but proceedings in contempt of confidential proceeding shall preserve the confidentiality of the disciplinary proceeding as elsewhere provided.

(c) Judgment of suspension or disbarment. Upon entry of a judgment of suspension from practice or disbarment.

(d) Appellate review. Upon the filing of an appeal in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(2) Resignation pending disciplinary proceedings. If an accused or respondent shall resign pending disciplinary proceedings which are confidential, such proceedings shall remain confidential except as follows: If the resigned member of The Florida Bar shall apply for readmission to The Florida Bar or for admission to the bar of any other jurisdiction, the Florida Board of Bar Examiners and the comparable body having jurisdiction of an application for admission in the other jurisdiction shall be given access to the files of The Florida Bar for the purpose of evaluating the applicant's competency to practice law.

(3) Evidence of crime. The confidential nature of disciplinary proceedings and the oath given to witnesses therein shall not proscribe the filing of informations and the giving of testimony before grand juries by individuals having knowledge of facts indicating the commission of crime if such knowledge was obtained independently of disciplinary proceedings.

(4) Information concerning status of proceeding. No information concerning the pendency or status of an investigation or trial or other confidential matter shall be given unless and until a judgment of the Board of Governors is filed with the Clerk of this Court or unless authorized by the Board of Governors; provided, however, that the chairman of a grievance committee may advise a circuit judge in confidence of the status of proceedings as to a particular accused or respondent.

RULE 11.13: ADDITIONAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

(1) Time is directory. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules of Discipline, the time intervals required are directory only and are not jurisdictional. Failure to observe such directory intervals may result in contempt of the agency having jurisdiction or of the Supreme Court, but will not prejudice the offending party except where so provided.

(2) Notice in lieu of process. Every member of The Florida Bar is within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and its agencies under these rules, and service of process is not required to obtain jurisdiction over respondents in disciplinary proceedings; but due process requires the giving of reasonable notice and such shall be effective by the service of the complaint upon the respondent by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail return receipt requested to the last known address of the respondent according to the records of The Florida Bar or such later address as may be known to the person effecting the service.

(3) Subpoenas. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence other than before a circuit court shall be issued as follows:

(a) Referees. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and production of documentary evidence before a referee shall be issued by the referee and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(b) Grievance Committees. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence before a grievance committee may be issued by any member of a grievance committee in pursuance of an investigation authorized by the committee. Such subpoenas may be served by any member of such committee or in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(c) Reinstatement committees. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence before a reinstatement committee shall be issued by the chairman, vice-chairman or secretary of such committee, and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(d) Board of Governors. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence before the Board of Governors shall be issued by the Executive Director under the seal of The Florida Bar, and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(e) Confidential proceedings. If the proceeding is confidential a subpoena shall not name the accused or respondent but shall style the proceeding as "Confidential proceeding by The Florida Bar under the Rules of Discipline."

(f) Contempt. Any person who without adequate excuse fails to obey such a subpoena served upon him may be cited for contempt of this court in the manner provided by this rule.

(4) Oath of witnesses. Every witness in every proceeding under these rules shall be sworn to tell the truth and not to disclose the existence of the proceeding nor the identity of the accused or respondent until the proceeding is no longer confidential under these rules. Violation of the oath shall be an act of contempt of this Court.

(5) Contempt. If an agency other than a circuit court shall find that a person is in contempt under these rules, such person shall be cited for contempt in the following manner:

(a) Petition for rule to show cause. The agency shall direct bar counsel, or chairman of the agency if there is no bar counsel serving in the matter in which the contempt occurs, to present to the circuit court having jurisdiction a petition for the issuance of a rule to show cause why the person so accused should not be held in contempt of this Court.

(b) Confidentiality. If the proceeding in which the contempt occurs is a confidential proceeding, the confidentiality shall be preserved in the contempt proceeding in the following manner: Pleadings shall be styled "Proceeding by The Florida Bar under the Rules of Discipline, The Florida Bar v. (name of accused in contempt proceeding)." No pleadings or matters shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court; instead all such matters shall be presented to the circuit judge hearing the same and shall be returned to the agency upon completion of the contempt proceedings and then filed with the Executive Director. Docket entries and sentences or judgments in contempt proceedings, if entered in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, shall be styled as provided for pleadings and shall make no references to the accused or the respondent in the disciplinary proceeding in which the contempt occurred. If the name of the accused or respondent shall become of public record, the court having jurisdiction in the contempt proceeding shall take appropriate steps to preserve the confidentiality of the disciplinary proceedings, and shall consider whether or not the person responsible for the making of the name of the accused or respondent of public record is also guilty of contempt under these Rules of Discipline.

(c) Appellate review. A judgment in such contempt proceedings may be appealed by either party in the manner provided in the rule on appellate review, except that a copy of the petition for appeal shall not be filed with the clerk of the circuit court, and the record shall be forwarded by the judge or the agency possessing the same.

RULE 11.14: DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS IN CIRCUIT COURTS

(1) Disciplinary matters in district courts of appeal and circuit court. Whenever it shall be made known to any of the judges of the district courts of appeal or any judge of a circuit court in this state that a member of The Florida Bar practicing in any of the courts of his district or judicial circuit has been guilty of any unprofessional act as defined by this Integration Rule or the code of ethics adopted by this Court, such judge may direct the state attorney for the circuit in which such attorney shall have his office to make in writing a motion in the name of the State of Florida to discipline such attorney setting forth in the motion the particular act or acts of conduct for which the attorney is sought to be disciplined.

(2) Copy served upon accused. Upon the filing of such motion a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused attorney and he shall within ten (10) days after the service thereof, file his answer thereto. A copy of such motion shall be filed with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar at the time of service upon the accused attorney.

(3) Trial before a circuit judge. Upon the filing of the answer the presiding judge of the judicial circuit in which the accused attorney's office is located shall designate one of the judges thereof to try and determine said cause. Such judge shall conduct a hearing thereon and shall hear the evidence to be offered by the State of Florida and the accused. A representative or representatives of The Florida Bar, appointed by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, shall have the right to be present and to observe the proceedings. Upon the conclusion of said hearing, said judge shall enter such judgment of dismissal, reprimand, probation, suspension or disbarment as shall be appropriate to the circumstances.

The parties shall be entitled to compulsory process to force the attendance of any witnesses.

(4) Judgment filed in Supreme Court. If the judgment be one of public reprimand, suspension or disbarment, three certified copies of the same shall be forthwith filed by the clerk of the trial court with the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Florida. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall retain one copy for his records, deliver to the Executive Director of The Florida Bar one copy of said judgment for his official records, and shall forthwith serve the third copy upon the accused attorney.

(5) Petition for appellate review. The respondent may appeal from a judgment entered by a circuit court. Such appeal shall be made in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(6) Duty to expedite proceedings. It shall be the duty of the state attorney who is directed to file said motion to file the same promptly and to dispose of said controversy expeditiously.

(7) Concurrent jurisdiction of The Florida Bar. The jurisdiction of the district courts of appeal and circuit courts created by this rule and the procedure herein outlined shall be concurrent with that of The Florida Bar under the preceding portions of these Rules of Discipline. The forum first asserting jurisdiction in a disciplinary matter shall retain the same to the exclusion of the other until the final determination of the cause.

(8) Reinstatement. Reinstatement of attorneys disbarred by proceedings in circuit courts shall be governed by the rule on reinstatement.

RULE 11.15: STATUTES SUPERSEDED

These Rules of Discipline shall supersede Sections 454.24, 454.25, 454.26, 454.27, 454.28, 454.29 and such parts of Sections 454.18, 454.30, 454.31 and 454.32, Florida Statutes 1959, as are in conflict herewith.

2. The Board of Governors may, upon good cause shown, revoke the authority of any bar association or other group of attorneys to operate a lawyer referral service, and may adopt such regulations governing the establishment, operation and revocation of permission to operate such a service as it may deem desirable.

OATH OF ADMISSION

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on January 27, 1941*)

"The general principles which should ever control the lawyer in the practice of his profession are clearly set forth in the following Oath of Admission to the Bar, which they are sworn on admission to obey and for the wilful violation of which disbarment may be had.

"I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR:

"I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Florida.

"I will maintain the respect due to Courts of Justice and judicial officers;

"I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceeding which shall appear to me to be unjust, nor any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;

"I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the Judge or jury by any artifice or false statement of fact or law;

"I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business except from him or with his knowledge and approval;

"I will abstain from all offensive personalities and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;

"I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed, or delay any man's cause for lucre or malice. So Help Me God."

CANONS OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on December 6, 1955, and as further amended November 17, 1958)

1. The Duty of the Lawyer to the Courts.

It is the duty of the lawyer to maintain towards the Courts a respectful attitude, not for the sake of the temporary incumbent of the judicial office, but for the maintenance of its supreme importance. Judges, not being wholly free to defend themselves, are peculiarly entitled to receive the support of the Bar against unjust criticism and clamor. Whenever there is proper ground for serious complaint of a judicial officer, it is the right and duty of the lawyer to submit his grievances to the proper authorities. In such cases, but not otherwise, such charges should be encouraged and the person making them should be protected.

2. The Selection of Judges.

It is the duty of the Bar to endeavor to prevent political considerations from outweighing judicial fitness in the selections of Judges. It should protest earnestly and actively against the appointment or election of those who are unsuitable for the Bench; and it should strive to have elevated thereto only those willing to forego other employments, whether of a business, political or other character, which may embarrass their free and fair consideration of questions before them for decision. The aspiration of lawyers for judicial position should be governed by an impartial estimate of their ability to add honor to the office and not by a desire for the distinction the position may bring to themselves.

3. Attempts to Exert Personal Influence on the Court.

Marked attention and unusual hospitality on the part of a lawyer to a Judge, uncalled for by the personal relations of the parties, subject both the Judge and the lawyer to misconstructions of motive and should be avoided. A lawyer should not communicate or argue privately with the Judge as to the merits of a pending cause, and he deserves rebuke and denunciation for any device or attempt to gain from a Judge special personal consideration or favor. A self-respecting independence in the discharge of professional duty, without denial or diminution of the courtesy and respect due the Judge's station, is the only proper foundation for cordial personal and official relations between Bench and Bar.

*The preliminary sentence and oath quoted above are taken from the rules adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on January 27, 1941. See 145 Fla. 797, 798 and 31 F.S.A. (1950 Ed.) 420.

4. When Counsel for an Indigent Prisoner.

A lawyer assigned as counsel for an indigent prisoner ought not to ask to be excused for any trivial reason, and should always exert his best efforts in his behalf.

5. The Defense or Prosecution of Those Accused of Crime.

It is the right of the lawyer to undertake the defense of a person accused of crime, regardless of his personal opinion as to the guilt of the accused; otherwise innocent persons, victims only of suspicious circumstances, might be denied proper defense. Having undertaken such defense, the lawyer is bound, by all fair and honorable means, to present every defense that the law of the land permits, to the end that no person may be deprived of life or liberty but by due process of law.

The primary duty of a lawyer engaged in public prosecution is not to convict, but to see that justice is done. The suppression of facts or the secreting of witnesses capable of establishing the innocence of the accused is highly reprehensible.

6. Adverse Influences and Conflicting Interests.

It is the duty of a lawyer at the time of retainer to disclose to the client all the circumstances of his relations to the parties, and any interest in or connection with the controversy, which might influence the client in the selection of counsel.

It is unprofessional to represent conflicting interests, except by express consent of all concerned given after a full disclosure of the facts. Within the meaning of this canon, a lawyer represents conflicting interests when, in behalf of one client, it is his duty to contend for that which duty to another client requires him to oppose.

The obligation to represent the client with undivided fidelity and not to divulge his secrets or confidences forbids also the subsequent acceptance of retainers or employment from others in matters adversely affecting any interest of the client with respect to which confidence has been reposed.

7. Professional Colleagues and Conflicts of Opinion.

A client's proffer of assistance of additional counsel should not be regarded as evidence of want of confidence, but the matter should be left to the determination of the client. A lawyer should decline association as colleague if it is objectionable to the original counsel, but if the lawyer first retained is relieved, another may come into the case.

When lawyers jointly associated in a cause cannot agree as to any matter vital to the interest of the client, the conflict of opinion should be frankly stated to him for his final determination. His decision should be accepted unless the nature of the difference makes it impracticable for the lawyer whose judgment has been overruled to co-operate effectively. In this event it is his duty to ask the client to relieve him.

Efforts, direct or indirect, in any way to encroach upon the professional employment of another lawyer, are unworthy of those who should be brethren at the Bar; but nevertheless, it is the right of any lawyer, without fear or favor, to give proper advice to those seeking relief against unfaithful or neglectful counsel, generally after communication with the lawyer of whom the complaint is made.

8. Advising Upon the Merits of a Client's Cause.

A lawyer should endeavor to obtain full knowledge of his client's cause before advising thereon, and he is bound to give a candid opinion of the merits and probable result of pending or contemplated litigation. The miscarriages to which justice is subject, by reason of surprises and disappointments in evidence and witnesses, and through mistakes of juries and errors of Courts, even though only occasional, admonish lawyers to beware of bold and confident assurances to clients, especially where the employment may depend upon such assurance. Whenever the controversy will admit of fair judgment, the client should be advised to avoid or to end the litigation.

9. Negotiations With Opposite Party.

A lawyer should not in any way communicate upon the subject of controversy with a party represented by counsel; much less should he undertake to negotiate or compromise the matter with him, but should deal only with his counsel. It is incumbent upon the lawyer most particularly to avoid everything that may tend to mislead a party not represented by counsel, and he should not undertake to advise him as to the law.

10. Acquiring Interest in Litigation.

The lawyer should not purchase any interest in the subject matter of the litigation which he is conducting.

11. Dealing With Trust Property.

The lawyers should refrain from any action whereby for his personal benefit or gain he abuses or takes advantage of the confidence reposed in him by his client.

Money of the client or collected for the client or other trust property coming into the possession of the lawyer should be reported and accounted for promptly, and should not under any circumstances be commingled with his own or be used by him.

12. Fixing the Amount of the Fee.

In fixing fees, lawyers should avoid charges which overestimate their advice and services, as well as those which undervalue them. A client's ability to pay cannot justify a charge in excess of the value of the service, though his poverty may require a less charge, or even none at all. The reasonable requests of brother lawyers, and of their widows and orphans without ample means, should receive special and kindly consideration.

In determining the amount of the fee, it is proper to consider: (1) the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved and the skill requisite properly to conduct the cause; (2) whether the acceptance of employment in the particular case will preclude the lawyer's appearance for others in cases likely to arise out of the transaction, and in which there is a reasonable expectation that otherwise he would be employed, or will involve the loss of other employment while employed in the particular case or antagonisms with other clients; (3) the customary charges of the Bar for similar services; (4) the amount involved in the controversy and the benefits resulting to the client from the services; (5) the contingency or the certainty of the compensation; and (6) the character of the employment, whether casual or for an established and constant client. No one of these considerations in itself is controlling. They are mere guides in ascertaining the real value of the service.

In determining the customary charges of the Bar for similar services, it is proper for a lawyer to consider a schedule of minimum fees adopted by a Bar Association, but no lawyer should permit himself to be controlled thereby or to follow it as his sole guide in determining the amount of his fee.

In fixing fees it should never be forgotten that the profession is a branch of the administration of justice and not a mere money-getting trade.

13. Contingent Fees.

A contract for a contingent fee, where sanctioned by law, should be reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, including the risk and uncertainty of the compensation, but should always be subject to the supervision of a court, as to its reasonableness.

14. Suing a Client for a Fee.

Controversies with clients concerning compensation are to be avoided by the lawyer so far as shall be compatible with his self-respect and with his right to receive reasonable recompense for his services; and lawsuits with clients should be resorted to only to prevent injustice, imposition or fraud.

15. How Far a Lawyer May Go in Supporting a Client's Cause.

Nothing operates more certainly to create or to foster popular prejudice against lawyers as a class, and to deprive the profession of that full measure of public esteem and confidence which belongs to the proper discharge of its duties than does the false claim, often set up by the unscrupulous in defense of questionable transactions, that it is the duty of the lawyer to do whatever may enable him to succeed in winning his client's cause.

It is improper for a lawyer to assert in argument his personal belief in his client's innocence or in the justice of his cause.

The lawyer owes "entire devotion to the interest of the client, warm zeal in the maintenance and defense of his rights and the exertion of his utmost learning and ability," to the end that nothing be taken or be withheld from him, save by the rules of law, legally applied. No fear of judicial disfavor or public unpopularity should restrain him from the full discharge of his duty. In the judicial forum the client is entitled to the benefit of any and every remedy and defense that is authorized by the law of the land, and he may expect his lawyer to assert every such remedy or defense. But it is steadfastly to be borne in mind that the great trust of the lawyer is to be performed within and not without the bounds of the law. The office of attorney does not permit, much less does it demand of him for any client, violation of law or any manner of fraud or chicane. He must obey his own conscience and not that of his client.

16. Restraining Clients from Improprieties.

A lawyer should use his best efforts to restrain and to prevent his clients from doing those things which the lawyer himself ought not to do, particularly with reference to their conduct towards Courts, judicial officers, jurors, witnesses and suitors. If a client persists in such wrong-doing the lawyer should terminate their relation.

17. Ill-Feeling and Personalities Between Advocates.

Clients, not lawyers, are the litigants. Whatever may be the ill-feeling existing between clients, it should not be allowed to influence counsel in their conduct and demeanor toward each other or toward suitors in the case. All personalities between counsel should be scrupulously avoided. In the trial of a cause it is indecent to allude to the personal history or the personal peculiarities and idiosyncrasies of counsel on the other side. Personal colloquies between counsel which cause delay and promote unseemly wrangling should also be carefully avoided.

18. Treatment of Witnesses and Litigants.

A lawyer should always treat adverse witnesses and suitors with fairness and due consideration, and he should never minister to the malevolence or prejudices of a client in the trial or conduct of a cause. The client cannot be made the keeper of the lawyer's conscience in professional matters. He has no right to demand that his counsel shall abuse the opposite party or indulge in offensive personalities. Improper speech is not excusable on the ground that it is what the client would say if speaking in his own behalf.

19. Appearance of Lawyer as Witness for His Client.

When a lawyer is a witness for his client, except as to merely formal matters, such as the attestation or custody of an instrument and the like, he should leave the trial of the case to other counsel. Except when essential to the ends of justice, a lawyer should avoid testifying in court in behalf of his client.

20. Newspaper Discussion of Pending Litigation.

Newspaper publications by a lawyer as to pending or anticipated litigation may interfere with a fair trial in the Courts and otherwise prejudice the due administration of justice. Generally they are to be condemned. If the extreme circumstances of a particular case justify a statement to the public, it is unprofessional to make it anonymously. An ex parte reference to the facts should not go beyond quotation from the records and papers on file in the court; but even in extreme cases it is better to avoid any ex parte statement.

21. Punctuality and Expedition.

It is the duty of the lawyer not only to his client, but also to the Courts and to the public to be punctual in attendance, and to be concise and direct in the trial and disposition of causes.

22. Candor and Fairness.

The conduct of the lawyer before the Court and with other lawyers should be characterized by candor and fairness.

It is not candid or fair for the lawyer knowingly to misquote the contents of a paper, the testimony of a witness, the language or the argument of opposing counsel, or the language of a decision or a textbook; or with knowledge of its invalidity, to cite as authority a decision that has been overruled, or a statute that has been repealed; or in argument to assert as a fact that which has not been proved, or in those jurisdictions where a side has the opening and closing arguments to mislead his opponent by concealing or withholding positions in his opening argument upon which his side then intends to rely.

It is unprofessional and dishonorable to deal other than candidly with the facts in taking the statements of witnesses, in drawing affidavits and other documents, and in the presentation of causes.

A lawyer should not offer evidence which he knows the Court should reject, in order to get the same before the jury by argument for its admissibility, nor should he address to the Judge arguments upon any point not properly calling for determination by him. Neither should he introduce into an argument, addressed to the court, remarks or statements intended to influence the jury or bystanders.

These and all kindred practices are unprofessional and unworthy of an officer of the law charged, as is the lawyer, with the duty of aiding in the administration of justice.

23. Attitude Toward Jury.

All attempts to curry favor with juries by fawning, flattery or pretended solicitude for their personal comfort are unprofessional. Suggestions of counsel, looking to the comfort or convenience of jurors, and propositions to dispense with argument, should be made to the Court out of the jury's hearing. A lawyer must never converse privately with jurors about the case; and both before and during the trial he should avoid communicating with them, even as to matters foreign to the cause.

24. Right of Lawyer to Control the Incidents of the Trial.

As to incidental matters pending the trial, not affecting the merits of the cause, or working substantial prejudice to the rights of the client, such as forcing the opposite lawyer to trial when he is under affliction or bereavement; forcing the trial on a particular day to the injury of the opposite lawyer when no harm will result from a trial at a different time; agreeing to an extension of time for signing a bill of exceptions, cross interrogatories and the like, the lawyer must be allowed to judge. In such matters no client has a right to demand that his counsel shall be illiberal, or that he do anything therein repugnant to his own sense of honor and propriety.

25. Taking Technical Advantage of Opposite Counsel; Agreements With Him.

A lawyer should not ignore known customs or practice of the Bar or of a particular Court, even when the law permits, without giving timely notice to the opposing counsel. As far as possible, important agreements, affecting the rights of clients, should be reduced to writing; but it is dishonorable to avoid performance of an agreement fairly made because it is not reduced to writing, as required by rules of Court.

26. Professional Advocacy Other Than Before Courts.

A lawyer openly, and in his true character may render professional services before legislative or other bodies, regarding proposed legislation and in advocacy of claims before departments of government, upon the same principles of ethics which justify his appearance before the Courts; but it is unprofessional for a lawyer so engaged to conceal his attorneyship, or to employ secret personal solicitations, or to use means other than those addressed to the reason and understanding to influence action.

27. Advertising, Direct or Indirect.

It is unprofessional to solicit professional employment by circulars, advertisements, through touters or by personal communications or interviews not warranted by personal relations. Indirect advertisements for professional employment such as furnishing or inspiring newspaper comments, or procuring his photograph to be published in connection with causes in which the lawyer has been or is engaged or concerning the manner of their conduct, the magnitude of the interest involved, the importance of the lawyer's position, and all other like self-laudation, offend the traditions and lower the tone of our profession and are reprehensible; but the customary use of simple professional cards is not improper.

Publication in reputable law lists in a manner consistent with the standards of conduct imposed by these canons of brief biographical and informative data is permissible. Such data must not be misleading and may include only a statement of the lawyer's name and the names of his professional associates; addresses, telephone numbers, cable addresses; branches of the profession practiced; date and place of birth and admission to the bar; schools attended; with dates of graduation, degrees and other educational distinctions; public or quasi-public offices; posts of honor; legal authorships; legal teaching positions; memberships and offices in bar associations and committees thereof, in legal and scientific societies and legal fraternities; the fact of listings in other reputable law lists; the names and addresses of references; and, with their written consent, the names of clients regularly represented. A certificate of compliance with the Rules and Standards issued by the Special Committee on Law Lists may be treated as evidence that such list is reputable.

It is not improper for a lawyer who is admitted to practice as a proctor in admiralty to use that designation on his letterhead or shingle or for a lawyer who has complied with the statutory requirements of admission to practice before the patent office, to so use the designation "patent attorney" or "patent lawyer" or "trademark attorney" or "trademark lawyer" or any combination of those terms.

28. Stirring Up Litigation, Directly or Through Agents.

It is unprofessional for a lawyer to volunteer advice to bring a lawsuit, except in rare cases where ties of blood, relationship or trust make it his duty to do so. Stirring up strife and litigation is not only unprofessional, but it is indictable at common law. It is disreputable to hunt up defects in titles or other causes of action and inform thereof in order to be employed to bring suit or collect judgment, or to breed litigation by seeking out those with claims for personal injuries or those having any other grounds of action in order to secure them as clients, or to employ agents or runners for like purposes, or to pay or reward, directly or indirectly, those who bring or influence the bringing of such cases to his office, or to remunerate policemen, court or prison officials, physicians, hospital attaches or others who may succeed, under the guise of giving disinterested friendly advice, in influencing the criminal, the sick and the injured, the ignorant or others, to seek his professional services. A duty to the public and to the profession devolves upon every member of the Bar having knowledge of such practices upon the part of any practitioner immediately to inform thereof, to the end that the offender may be disbarred.

29. Upholding the Honor of the Profession.

Lawyers should expose without fear or favor before the proper tribunals corrupt or dishonest conduct in the profession, and should accept without hesitation employment against a member of the Bar who has wronged his client. The counsel upon the trial of a cause in which perjury has been committed owe it to the profession and to the public to bring the matter to the knowledge of the prosecuting authorities. The lawyer should aid in guarding the Bar against the admission to the profession of candidates unfit or unqualified because deficient in either moral character or education. He should strive at all times to uphold the honor and to maintain the dignity of the profession and to improve not only the law but the administration of justice.

30. Justifiable and Unjustifiable Litigations.

The lawyer must decline to conduct a civil cause or to make a defense when convinced that it is intended merely to harass or to injure the opposite party or to work oppression or wrong. But otherwise it is his right, and, having accepted retainer, it becomes his duty to insist upon the judgment of the Court as to the legal merits of his client's claim. His appearance in Court should be deemed equivalent to an assertion on his honor that in his opinion his client's case is one proper for judicial determination.

31. Responsibility for Litigation.

No lawyer is obliged to act either as adviser or advocate for every person who may wish to become his client. He has the right to decline employment. Every lawyer upon his own responsibility must decide what employment he will accept as counsel, what causes he will bring into Court for plaintiffs, what cases he will contest in Court for defendants. The responsibility for advising as to questionable transactions, for bringing questionable suits, for urging questionable defenses, is the lawyer's responsibility. He cannot escape it by urging as an excuse that he is only following his client's instructions.

32. The Lawyer's Duty in Its Last Analysis.

No client, corporate or individual, however powerful, nor any cause, civil or political, however important, is entitled to receive nor should any lawyer render any service or advice involving disloyalty to the law whose ministers we are, or disrespect of the judicial office, which we are bound to uphold, or corruption of any person or persons exercising a public office or private trust, or deception or betrayal of the public. When rendering any such improper service or advice, the lawyer invites and merits stern and just condemnation. Correspondingly, he advances the honor of his profession and the best interests of his client when he renders service or gives advice tending to impress upon the client and his undertaking exact compliance with the strictest principles of moral law. He must also observe and advise his client to observe the statute law, though until a statute shall have been construed and interpreted by competent adjudication, he is free and is entitled to advise as to its validity and as to what he conscientiously believes to be its just meaning and extent. But above all a lawyer will find his highest honor in a deserved reputation for fidelity to private trust and to public duty, as an honest man and as a patriotic and loyal citizen.

33. Partnerships—Professional Service Corporations.

Partnerships among lawyers for the practice of their profession are very common and are not to be condemned. The formation and use of a professional service corporation for the practice of law pursuant to the provisions of The Professional Service Corporation Act shall be permissible, subject always to compliance with such rules, regulations and requirements as may from time to time be promulgated by the Supreme Court of Florida. In the formation of partnerships and professional service corporations and the use of partnership or corporate names, care should be taken not to violate any law, custom or rule of court locally applicable. In the formation of partnerships and professional service corporations for the practice of law, no person should be admitted or held out as a practitioner who is not a member of the legal profession duly authorized to practice and amenable to professional discipline. In the selection and use of a firm or corporate name no false, misleading, assumed or tradenames should be used, except that a fictitious name may be used by a professional service corporation as authorized by The Professional Service Corporation Act. The continued use of the name of a deceased or former partner or shareholder when permissible by local custom is not unethical but care should be taken that no imposition or deception is practiced through this use. When a member of the firm or shareholder in the corporation, on becoming a judge, is precluded from practicing law, his name must not be continued in the firm or corporate name.

Partnerships between lawyers and members of other professions or nonprofessional persons must not be formed or permitted where any part of the partnership's employment consists of the practice of law.

The practice of law in any of its aspects by a professional service corporation as hereinabove sanctioned shall not in any way lessen the responsibilities of an individual lawyer or a group of lawyers under the Code of Ethics and such a corporation may not be used to lower, and shall not be permitted to lower, directly or indirectly, the ethical standards of the legal profession; and the Code of Ethics shall be construed accordingly.

34. Division of Fees.

No division of fees for legal services is proper, except with another lawyer, based upon a division of service or responsibility.

35. Intermediaries.

The professional services of a lawyer should not be controlled or exploited by any lay agency, personal or corporate, which intervenes between client and lawyer. A lawyer's responsibilities and qualifications are individual. He should avoid all relations which direct the performance of his duties by or in the interest of such intermediary. A lawyer's relation to his client should be personal, and the responsibility should be direct to the client. Charitable societies rendering aid to the indigents are not deemed such intermediaries.

A lawyer may accept employment from any organization, such as an association, club or trade organization, to render legal services in any matter in which the organization, as an entity, is interested, but this employment should not include the rendering of legal services to the members of such an organization in respect to their individual affairs.

Professional service corporations organized to practice law pursuant to The Professional Service Corporation Act shall not be deemed lay agencies or such intermediaries.

36. Retirement From Judicial Position or Public Employment.

A lawyer should not accept employment as an advocate in any matter upon the merits of which he has previously acted in a judicial capacity.

A lawyer, having once held public office or having been in the public employ, should not after his retirement accept employment in connection with any matter which he has investigated or passed upon while in such office or employ.

37. Confidences of a Client.

It is the duty of a lawyer to preserve his client's confidences. This duty outlasts the lawyer's employment, and extends as well to his employees; and neither of them should accept employment which involves or may involve the disclosure or use of these confidences, either for the private advantage of the lawyer or his employees or to the disadvantage of the client, without his knowledge and consent, and even though there are other available sources of such information. A lawyer should not continue employment when he discovers that this obligation prevents the performance of his full duty to his former or to his new client.

If a lawyer is accused by his client, he is not precluded from disclosing the truth in respect to the accusation. The announced intention of a client to commit a crime is not included within the confidences which he is bound to respect. He may properly make such disclosures as may be necessary to prevent the act or protect those against whom it is threatened.

38. Compensation, Commissions and Rebates.

A lawyer should accept no compensation, commissions, rebates or other advantages from others without the knowledge and consent of his client after full disclosure.

39. Witnesses.

A lawyer may properly interview any witness or prospective witness for the opposing side in any civil or criminal action without the consent of opposing counsel or party. In doing so, however, he should scrupulously avoid any suggestion calculated to induce the witness to suppress or deviate from the truth, or in any degree to affect his free and untrammeled conduct when appearing at the trial or on the witness stand.

40. Newspapers.

A lawyer may with propriety write articles for publications in which he gives information upon the law; but he should not accept employment from such publications to advise inquirers in respect to the individual rights.

41. Discovery of Imposition and Deception.

When a lawyer discovers that some fraud or deception has been practiced, which has unjustly imposed upon the court or a party, he should endeavor to rectify it; at first by advising his client, and if his client refuses to forego the advantage thus unjustly gained, he should promptly inform the injured person or his counsel, so that they may take appropriate steps.

42. Expenses.

A lawyer may not properly agree with a client that the lawyer shall pay or bear the expenses of litigation; he may in good faith advance expenses as a matter of convenience, but subject to reimbursement.

43. Approved Law Lists.

It shall be improper for a lawyer to permit his name to be published in a law list the conduct, management or contents of which are calculated or likely to deceive or injure the public or the profession, or to lower the dignity or standing of the profession.

44. Withdrawal From Employment as Attorney or Counsel.

The right of an attorney or counsel to withdraw from employment, once assumed, arises only from good cause. Even the desire or consent of the client is not always sufficient. The lawyer should not throw up the unfinished task to the detriment of his client except for reasons of honor or self-respect. If the client insists upon an unjust or immoral course in the conduct of his case, or if he persists over the attorney's remonstrance in presenting frivolous defenses, or if he deliberately disregards an agreement or obligation as to fees or expenses, the lawyer may be warranted in withdrawing on due notice to the client, allowing him time to employ another lawyer. So also when a lawyer discovers that his client has no case and the client is determined to continue it; or even if the lawyer finds himself incapable of conducting the case effectively. Sundry other instances may arise in which withdrawal is to be justified. Upon withdrawing from a case after a retainer has been paid, the attorney should refund such part of the retainer as has not been clearly earned.

45. Specialists.

The canons of the American Bar Association apply to all branches of the legal profession; specialists in particular branches are not to be considered as exempt from the application of these principles.

46. Notice of Specialized Legal Service.

Where a lawyer is engaged in rendering a specialized legal service directly and only to other lawyers, a brief, dignified notice of that fact, couched in language indicating that it is addressed to lawyers, inserted in legal periodicals and like publications, when it will afford convenient and beneficial information to lawyers desiring to obtain such service is not improper.

47. Aiding the Unauthorized Practice of Law.

No lawyer shall permit his professional services, or his name, to be used in aid of, or to make possible, the unauthorized practice of law by any lay agency, personal or corporate.

Professional service corporations organized to practice law pursuant to The Professional Service Corporation Act shall not be deemed lay agencies.

48. Communist Affiliation.

No lawyer shall become a member of, ally himself with, or in any way lend his allegiance to the Communist party or any subsidiary thereof (as contemplated by amendment to Article XI, disciplinary rule, of the Integration Rule of The Florida Bar, adopted July 13, 1956).

ADDITIONAL RULES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF ATTORNEYS IN FLORIDA

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on January 27, 1941, and December 6, 1955*)

It shall be the duty of all persons heretofore or hereafter admitted to practice law in the State of Florida:

1. To represent the interest of the client with undivided fidelity and to honestly and truly account to him for all funds received on his behalf, and on demand pay over to him all monies justly due him.
2. To maintain the respect due to the judicial officers and the Courts of Justice, State or Federal, within the State of Florida.
3. To employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to them, such means only as are consistent with truth, and never to seek to mislead the judges by any artifice, or by any statement of the law known to be false.
4. To maintain inviolate the confidence and, at every peril to themselves, to preserve the secrets of their clients.
5. To abstain from all offensive personalities, and to advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or a witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which they are charged.
6. Never to reject for any consideration personal to themselves the cause of the defenseless or oppressed.
7. Except as authorized by law, to refrain from seeking a reconsideration of the judgment of an appellate court by applying to any Justice or Judge, by letter or otherwise, to reinstate the cause on the rehearing docket after an application for a rehearing has been acted upon by the court, nor by such method to seek a rehearing after default in applying therefor. Counsel should present their argument in open court, or by brief, after serving a copy on the other side, and should therefore refrain from discussing the merits of the cause with a justice or judge, by letter or otherwise, either pending the original consideration or upon rehearing.
8. To refrain, except in open court or in the presence of opposing counsel, from arguing or discussing in person, by letter, or other communication, the merits of any case with any judge or court before whom such case is pending, unless a copy of such argument, discussion or communication be furnished to opposing counsel. In order that a proper respect for and consideration of the integrity and character of all courts may be had and promoted, the conduct forbidden by this rule is deemed unethical and improper.

No person heretofore or hereafter admitted to practice law in Florida, shall

9. Appear for or hold himself or herself out as appearing for or as having the right to receive for or transact any legal business for or in the name of, another

18. Fraudulently procure, or aid in the fraudulent procurement of, admission to practice law, either by wilfully misrepresenting the facts as to his or another's qualifications for admission or by fraudulently suppressing information at the time of or prior to such admission, and having relation to his or another's character, fitness, or qualification to practice;

19. Solicit his employment or professional engagement or the employment or professional engagement of another whose partner he is, or from whose employment there is any expectation of profit or benefit, directly or indirectly, to himself;

But nothing contained in this rule shall be construed as prohibiting the division of fees with a forwarder of business whether such forwarder be an attorney or a reputable collection agency;

23. Improperly falsify, alter, or abstract any pleading or other court record or any public record or public document;

31. Appear on behalf of a client before a public officer, board, committee or body without disclosing, upon being requested by such public officer, board, committee or body, or any member thereof, that he is an attorney representing such client;

32. Any attorney who shall do or be guilty of any of the acts forbidden or prohibited by law or rules of court may be subject to disciplinary action by public or private reprimand, or by suspension from the practice of law, or by exclusion and disbarment therefrom.

33. An attorney may be disbarred and excluded from the practice of law when any judgment is rendered against him for money collected by him as attorney upon which judgment an execution has issued and been returned no property.

CANONS OF JUDICIAL ETHICS

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on January 27, 1941, and December 6, 1955, and as amended November 17, 1958

Ancient Precedents

"And I charged your judges at that time, saying Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him."

"Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's; and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it."—Deuteronomy I: 16-17.

"Thou shall not wrest judgment; thou shall not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous."—Deuteronomy 16:19.

"We will not make any justiciaries, constables, sheriffs or bailiffs, but from those who understand the law of the realm and are well disposed to observe it."—Magna Charta, XLV.

"Judges ought to remember that their office is jus dicere not jus dare; to interpret law, and not to make law, or give law. . . .

"Judges ought to be more learned than witty; more reverend than plausible; and more advised than confident. Above all things, integrity is their portion and proper virtue.". . .

"Patience and gravity of hearing is an essential part of justice; and an over speaking judge is no well-tuned cymbal. It is no grace to a judge first to find that which he might have heard in due time from the Bar, or to show quickness of conceit in cutting off evidence or counsel too short; or to prevent information by questions though pertinent."

"The place of justice is a hallowed place; and therefore not only the Bench, but the foot pace and precincts and purprise thereof ought to be preserved without scandal and corruption." . . .—Bacon's Essay "Of Judicature."

1. Relations of the Judiciary.

The assumption of the office of judge casts upon the incumbent duties in respect to his personal conduct which concern his relation to the state and its inhabitants, the litigants before him, the principles of law, the practitioners of law in his court, and the witnesses, jurors and attendants who aid him in the administration of its functions.

2. The Public Interest.

Courts exist to promote justice, and thus to serve the public interest. Their administration should be diligent and careful. Every judge should at all times be alert in his rulings and in the conduct of the business of the court, so far as he can, to make it useful to litigants and to the community. He should avoid unconsciously falling into the attitude of mind that the litigants are made for the courts instead of the courts for the litigants.

3. Constitutional Obligations.

It is the duty of all judges in the United States to support the Federal Constitution and that of the State whose laws they administer; in so doing, they should fearlessly observe and apply fundamental limitations and guarantees.

4. Avoidance of Impropriety.

A judge's official conduct should be free from impropriety and the appearance of impropriety; he should avoid infractions of law; and his personal behavior, not only upon the Bench and in the performance of judicial duties, but also in his everyday life, should be beyond reproach.

5. Essential Conduct.

A judge should be temperate, attentive, patient, impartial, and since he is to administer the law and apply it to the facts, he should be studious of the principles of the law and diligent in endeavoring to ascertain the facts.

6. Industry.

A judge should exhibit an industry and application commensurate with the duties imposed upon him.

7. Promptness.

A judge should be prompt in the performances of his judicial duties, recognizing that the time of litigants, jurors and attorneys is of value and that habitual lack of punctuality on his part justifies dissatisfaction with the administration of the business of the court.

8. Court Organization.

A judge should organize the court with a view to the prompt and convenient dispatch of its business and he should not tolerate abuses and neglect by clerks, and other assistants who are sometimes prone to presume too much upon his good natured acquiescence by reason of friendly association with him.

It is desirable too, where the judicial system permits that he should cooperate with other judges of the same court, and in other courts, as members of a single judicial system, to promote the more satisfactory administration of justice.

9. Consideration for Jurors and Others.

A judge should be considerate of jurors, witnesses and others in attendance upon the court.

10. Courtesy and Civility.

A judge should be courteous to counsel, especially to those who are young and inexperienced, and also to all others appearing or concerned in the administration of justice in the court.

He should also require, and, so far as his power extends, enforce on the part of clerks, court officers and counsel civility and courtesy to the court and to jurors, witnesses, litigants and others having business in the court.

11. Unprofessional Conduct of Attorneys and Counsel.

A judge should utilize his opportunities to criticise and correct unprofessional conduct of attorneys and counsellors, brought to his attention; and if adverse comment is not a sufficient corrective, should send the matter at once to the proper investigating and disciplinary authorities.

12. Appointees of the Judiciary and Their Compensation.

Trustees, receivers, masters, referees, guardians and other persons appointed by a judge to aid in the administration of justice should have the strictest probity and impartiality and should be selected with a view solely to their character and fitness. The power of making such appointments should not be exercised by him for personal or partisan advantage. He should not permit his appointments to be controlled by others than himself. He should also avoid nepotism and undue favoritism in his appointments.

While not hesitating to fix or approve just amounts, he should be most scrupulous in granting or approving compensation for the services or charges of such appointees to avoid excessive allowances, whether or not excepted to or complained of. He cannot rid himself of this responsibility by the consent of counsel.

13. Kinship or Influence.

A judge should not act in a controversy where a near relative is a party; he should not suffer his conduct to justify the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor, or that he is affected by the kinship, rank, position of influence of any party or other person.

14. Independence.

A judge should not be swayed by partisan demands, public clamor or considerations of personal popularity or notoriety, nor be apprehensive of unjust criticism.

15. Interference in Conduct of Trial.

A judge may properly intervene in a trial of a case to promote expedition, and prevent unnecessary waste of time, or to clear up some obscurity, but he should bear in mind that his undue interference, impatience, or participation in the examination of witnesses, or a severe attitude on his part toward witnesses, especially those who are excited or terrified by the unusual circumstances of a trial, may tend to prevent the proper presentation of the cause, or the ascertainment of the truth in respect thereto.

Conversation between the judge and counsel in court is often necessary, but the judge should be studious to avoid controversies which are apt to obscure the merits of the dispute between litigants and lead to its unjust disposition. In addressing counsel, litigants, or witnesses, he should avoid a controversial manner or tone.

He should avoid interruptions of counsel in their arguments except to clarify his mind as to their positions, and he should not be tempted to the unnecessary display of learning or a premature judgment.

16. Ex Parte Applications.

A judge should discourage ex parte hearings of applications for injunctions and receiverships where the order may work detriment to absent parties; he should act upon such ex parte applications only where the necessity for quick action is clearly shown; if this be demonstrated then he should endeavor to counteract the effect of the absence of opposing counsel by a scrupulous cross-examination and investigation as to the facts and the principles of law on which the application is based, granting relief only when fully satisfied that the law permits it and the emergency demands it. He should remember that an injunction is a limitation upon the freedom of action of defendants and should not be granted lightly or inadvisedly. One applying for such relief must sustain the burden of showing clearly its necessity and this burden is increased in the absence of the party whose freedom of action is sought to be restrained even though only temporarily.

17. Ex Parte Communications.

A judge should not permit private interviews, arguments or communications designed to influence his judicial action, where interests to be affected thereby are not represented before him, except in cases where provision is made by law for ex parte application.

While the conditions under which briefs of arguments are to be received are largely matters of local rule of practice, he should not permit the contents of such brief presented to him to be concealed from opposing counsel. Ordinarily all communications of counsel to the judge intended or calculated to influence action should be made known to opposing counsel.

18. Continuances.

Delay in the administration of justice is a common cause of complaint; counsel are frequently responsible for this delay. A judge, without being arbitrary or forcing cases unreasonably or unjustly to trial when unprepared, to the detriment of parties, may well endeavor to hold counsel to a proper appreciation of their duties to the public interest, to their own clients, and to the adverse party and his counsel, so as to enforce due diligence in the dispatch of business before the court.

19. Judicial Opinions.

In disposing of controverted cases, a judge should indicate the reasons for his action in an opinion showing that he has not disregarded or overlooked serious arguments of counsel. He thus shows his full understanding of the case, avoids the suspicion of arbitrary conclusion, promotes confidence in his intellectual integrity and may contribute useful precedent to the growth of the law.

It is desirable that Courts of Appeal in reversing cases and granting new trials should so indicate their views on questions of law argued before them and necessarily arising in the controversy that upon the new trial counsel may be aided to avoid the repetition of erroneous positions of law and shall not be left in doubt by the failure of the court to decide such questions.

But the volume of reported decisions is such and is so rapidly increasing that in writing opinions which are to be published judges may well take this fact into consideration, and curtail them accordingly, without substantially departing from the principles stated above.

It is of high importance that judges constituting a court of last resort should use effort and self-restraint to promote solidarity of conclusion and the consequent influence of judicial decision. A judge should not yield to pride of opinion or value more highly his individual reputation than that of the court to which he should be loyal. Except in case of conscientious difference of opinion on fundamental principle, dissenting opinions should be discouraged in courts of last resort.

20. Influence of Decisions upon the Development of the Law.

A judge should be mindful that his duty is the application of general law to particular instances, that ours is a government of law and not of men, and that he violates his duty as a minister of justice under such a system if he seeks to do what he may personally consider substantial justice in a particular case and disregards the general law as he knows it to be binding on him. Such action may become a precedent unsettling accepted principles and may have detrimental consequences beyond the immediate controversy. He should administer his office with a due regard to the integrity of the system of the law itself, remembering that he is not a depositary of arbitrary power, but a judge under the sanction of law.

21. Idiosyncrasies and Inconsistencies.

Justice should not be moulded by the individual idiosyncrasies of those who administer it. A judge should adopt the usual and expected method of doing justice, and not seek to be extreme or peculiar in his judgment, or spectacular or sensational in the conduct of the court. Though vested with discretion in the imposition of mild or severe sentences he should not compel persons brought before him to submit to some humiliating act or discipline of his own devising, without authority of law, because he thinks it will have a beneficial corrective influence.

In imposing sentence he should endeavor to conform to a reasonable standard of punishment and should not seek popularity or publicity either by exceptional severity or undue leniency.

22. Review.

In order that a litigant may secure the full benefit of the right of review accorded to him by law, a trial judge should scrupulously grant to the defeated party opportunity to present the questions arising upon the trial exactly as they arose, were presented, and decided, by full and fair bill of exceptions or otherwise; any failure in this regard on the part of the judge is peculiarly worthy of condemnation because the wrong done may be irremediable.

23. Legislation.

A judge has exceptional opportunity to observe the operation of statutes, especially those relating to practice; and to ascertain whether they tend to impede the unjust disposition of controversies; and he may well contribute to the public interest by advising those having authority to remedy defects of procedure, of the result of his observation and experience.

24. Inconsistent Obligations.

A judge should not accept inconsistent duties, nor incur obligations, pecuniary or otherwise, which will in any way interfere or appear to interfere with his devotion to the expeditious and proper administration of his official functions.

25. Business Promotions and Solicitations for Charity.

A judge should avoid giving ground for any reasonable suspicion that he is utilizing the power or prestige to his office to persuade or coerce others to patronize or contribute, either to the success of private business ventures, or to charitable enterprises. He should, therefore, not enter into such private business, or pursue such a course of conduct, as would justify such suspicion, nor use the power of his office or the influence of his name to promote the business interests of others; he should not solicit for charities, nor should he enter into any business relation which, in the normal course of events reasonably to be expected, might bring his personal interest into conflict with the impartial performance of his official duties.

26. Personal Investments and Relations.

A judge should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which are apt to be involved in litigation in the court; and, after his accession to the Bench, he should not retain such investments previously made, longer than a period sufficient to enable him to dispose of them without serious loss. It is desirable that he should, so far as reasonably possible, refrain from all relations which would normally tend to arouse the suspicion that such relations warp or bias his judgment, or prevent his impartial attitude of mind in the administration of his judicial duties.

He should not utilize information coming to him in a judicial capacity for purposes of speculation; and it detracts from the public confidence in his integrity and the soundness of his judicial judgment for him at any time to become a speculative investor upon the hazard of a margin.

27. Executorships and Trusteeships.

While a judge is not disqualified from holding executorships or trusteeships, he should not accept or continue to hold any fiduciary or other position if the holding of it would interfere or seem to interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, or if the business interests of those represented require investments in enterprises that are apt to come before him judicially, or to be involved in questions of law to be determined by him.

28. Partisan Politics.[1]

While entitled to entertain his personal views of political questions, and while not required to surrender his rights or opinions as a citizen, it is inevitable that suspicion of being warped by political bias will attach to a judge who becomes the active promoter of the interests of one political party as against another. He should avoid making political speeches, making or soliciting payment of assessments or contributions to party funds, except as required by law, the public endorsement of candidates for political office and participation in party conventions.

"He should neither accept nor retain a place on any party committee nor act as party leader, nor engage generally in partisan activities."[2]

29. Self-Interest.

A judge should abstain from performing or taking part in any judicial act in which his personal interests are involved. If he has personal litigation in the court of which he is judge, he need not resign his judgeship on that account, but he should, of course, refrain from any judicial act in such a controversy.

30. Candidacy for Office.

A candidate for judicial position should not make or suffer others to make for him, promises of conduct in office which appeal to the cupidity or prejudices

[1]In 1950 the American Bar Association amended Canon 28 to read as follows:

"28. Partisan Politics. While entitled to entertain his personal views of political questions, and while not required to surrender his rights or opinions as a citizen, it is inevitable that suspicion of being warped by political bias will attach to a judge who becomes the active promoter of the interests of one political party as against another. He should avoid making political speeches, making or soliciting payment of assessments or contributions to party funds, the public endorsement of candidates for political office and participation in party conventions.

"He should neither accept nor retain a place on any party committee nor act as party leader, nor engage generally in partisan activities.

"Where however, it is necessary for judges to be nominated and elected as candidates of a political party, nothing herein contained shall prevent the judge from attending or speaking at political gatherings, or from making contributions to the campaign funds of the party that has nominated him and seeks his election or re-election."

[2]As amended by the Supreme Court of Florida, November 17, 1958.

of the appointing or electing power; he should not announce in advance his conclusions of law on disputed issues to secure class support, and he should do nothing while a candidate to create the impression that if chosen, he will administer his office with bias, partiality or improper discrimination.

While holding a judicial position he should not become an active candidate either at a party primary or at a general election for any office other than a judicial office. If a judge should decide to become a candidate for any office not judicial, he should resign in order that it cannot be said that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy or the success of his party.

If a judge becomes a candidate for any judicial office, he should refrain from all conduct which might tend to arouse reasonable suspicion that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his candidacy or the success of his party.

He should not permit others to do anything in behalf of his candidacy which would reasonably lead to such suspicion.

31. Private Law Practice.

In many states the practice of law by one holding judicial position is forbidden. In superior courts of general jurisdiction, it should never be permitted. In inferior courts in some states, it is permitted because the county or municipality is not able to pay adequate living compensation for a competent judge. In such cases one who practices law is in a position of great delicacy and must be scrupulously careful to avoid conduct in his practice whereby he utilizes or seems to utilize his judicial position to further his professional success.

He should not practice in the court in which he is a judge, even when presided over by another judge, or appear therein for himself or any controversy.

If forbidden to practice law, he should refrain from accepting any professional employment while in office.

He may properly act as arbitrator or lecture upon or instruct in law, or write upon the subject, and accept compensation therefor, if such course does not interfere with the due performance of his judicial duties, and is not forbidden by some positive provision of law.

32. Gifts and Favors.

A judge should not accept any presents or favors from litigants, or from lawyers practising before him or from others whose interests are likely to be submitted to him for judgment.

33. Social Relations.

It is not necessary to the proper performance of judicial duty that a judge should live in retirement or seclusion; it is desirable that, so far as reasonable attention to the completion of his work will permit, he continue to mingle in social intercourse, and that he should not discontinue his interest in or appearance at meetings of members of the Bar. He should, however, in pending or prospective litigation before him be particularly careful to avoid such action as may reasonably tend to awaken the suspicion that his social or business relations or friendships constitute an element in influencing his judicial conduct.

34. A Summary of Judicial Obligation.

In every particular his conduct should be above reproach. He should be conscientious, studious, thorough, courteous, patient, punctual, just, impartial, fearless of public clamor, regardless of public praise, and indifferent to private political or partisan influences; he should administer justice according to law, and deal with his appointments as a public trust; he should not allow other affairs or his private interests to interfere with the prompt and proper performance of his judicial duties, nor should he administer the office for the purpose of advancing his personal ambitions or increasing his popularity.

35. Improper Publicizing of Court Proceedings.

Proceedings in court should be conducted with fitting dignity and decorum. The taking of photographs in the court room, during sessions of the court or recesses between sessions, and the broadcasting or televising of court proceedings tend to detract from the essential dignity of the proceedings, distract the witness in giving his testimony, disturb the court, and create misconceptions with respect thereto in the mind of the public and should not be permitted.

Provided that this restriction shall not apply to photographing the broadcasting or televising, under the supervision of the court, of ceremonial proceedings or of such portions of naturalization proceedings (other than the interrogation of applicants) as are designed and carried out exclusively as a ceremony for the purpose of publicly demonstrating in an impressive manner the essential dignity and the serious nature of naturalization.

36. Conduct of Court Proceedings.

Proceedings in court should be so conducted as to reflect the importance and seriousness of the inquiry to ascertain the truth.

The oath should be administered to witnesses in a manner calculated to impress them with the importance and solemnity of their promise to adhere to the truth. Each witness should be sworn separately and impressively at the bar or the court, and the clerk should be required to make a formal record of the administration of the oath, including the name of the witness.

Article II
MEMBERSHIP

All members of The Florida Bar who have not yet reached the age of thirty-six shall be enrolled as members of the Junior Bar Section; provided, however, that any member who shall reach the age of 36 years shall be entitled to the rights of privileges of membership for the remainder of the fiscal year in which his 36th birthday occurs.

Article III
OFFICERS

The officers of the Bar shall be a President, a President-elect and a Secretary-Treasurer.

A President-elect, a Secretary and a Treasurer shall be elected by the members of the Junior Bar Section of The Florida Bar at its annual meeting to be held in 1953. Such officers shall take office at the conclusion of said meeting and shall hold office until the 1954 annual meeting. At the conclusion of the 1954 annual meeting, and at the conclusion of all future annual meetings of the Bar, the President-elect shall take office as President; provided, however, that the Vice-President elected at the annual meeting in 1952 shall, upon adoption of these regulations by the Junior Bar Section and approval by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, become President-elect and shall succeed to the office of President at the termination of the annual meeting held in 1953.

A President-elect, a Secretary and a Treasurer shall be elected at the annual meeting held in 1953 and at each annual meeting thereafter.

In the event the President is absent or unable to act, his duties shall be performed by the President-elect, and in the absence of the President and President-elect such duties shall be performed by the Secretary, and in the absence of all of the foregoing officers by the Treasurer. In the event of the death or resignation of the President, the President-elect shall become President; and in the event of the death or resignation of the President and President-elect, the Secretary shall become President, and in the event of the death or resignation of all of the foregoing officers, the Treasurer shall become President.

*Approved by two-thirds vote of members present at annual meeting held June 7, 1952, at Miami Beach, Florida.

Approved by Board of Governors of The Florida Bar at meeting held June 7, 1952, at Miami Beach, Florida.

No active member of the Bar shall be ineligible for election to any of the foregoing offices by reason of the fact that as a representative or representative-elect from a judicial circuit he is a member or member-elect of the Board of Governors; but anyone elected to any such office shall be entitled to cast only one vote on matters of business coming before the Board for consideration.

Article IV
ELECTION OF OFFICERS

All officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Junior Bar Section and shall hold office until the adjournment of the next annual meeting of the Junior Bar Section and until their successors are elected and qualified. The same person shall not serve as President for two successive years except that a President-elect who serves the unexpired term of a President shall be entitled to serve as President during the term for which he was elected. A majority of the votes cast at such annual meeting shall be necessary to the election of all officers and such vote in all cases be by written ballot.

The Nominating Committee shall consist of the President, who shall act as Chairman, but shall have no vote on the Committee, and one member from each of the judicial circuits as hereafter provided.

Prior to the convening of the annual meeting of The Florida Bar, the members in each of the judicial circuits shall elect one of their number a member of the Nominating Committee of the Junior Bar Section and written notice of such election shall be given the President by the member of the Board of Governors from each of such circuits prior to the convening of the such annual meeting.

Upon the convening of the annual meeting of The Florida Bar it shall be the President's duty to appoint each person so elected by the members in each circuit as members of the Nominating Committee; provided, however, that in the event the members in any circuit or circuits shall have failed to elect a member of the Nominating Committee or failed to advise the President thereof as hereinabove provided, then the President shall appoint as such member of the Nominating Committee one member of the Board of Governors from such circuit. In the event any circuit has failed to elect a member of the Nominating Committee or failed to advise the President thereof as hereinabove provided, then the President shall appoint a member of the Junior Bar Section as such member of the Nominating Committee.

Such Nominating Committee shall meet during said annual meeting and it shall be the duty of the President, as Chairman thereof, to notify all the members thereof of the time and place of such meeting or meetings, and shall nominate one or more candidates for each office for the ensuing year. The President shall make a written report of such nominations and certify thereon that the notice of all meetings of said Committee has been given by him as hereinabove provided.

Additional nominations may be made by members of the Section from the floor at the time of the election of officers. All candidates so nominated shall be presented to the Junior Bar Section immediately before the election of such officers.

Article V

Article VI

The Secretary shall be a member of the Board of Governors, and shall keep the record of the proceedings of the Junior Bar Section and of the Board of Governors, keep a roll of the members, attend to correspondence and issue notices of meeting, subject to the control of the Board of Governors, and perform such other duties as these Regulations and the Board of Governors may require.

Article VII
TREASURER

The Treasurer shall be a member of the Board of Governors, and shall account for all funds of the Junior Bar Section. He shall certify to the Executive Director of The Florida Bar for payment of all expenses incurred in behalf of the Junior Bar Section and shall cooperate with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar in matters relating to the fiscal affairs of the Junior Bar Section. The Treasurer, immediately on assuming office, shall, under the direction of the President and Board of Governors, prepare a budget to be submitted to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, for its approval.

Article VIII
BOARD OF GOVERNORS

There shall be a Board of Governors of the Junior Bar Section, to be composed of the President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer and one or more members from each Judicial Circuit, the number of such members from each circuit to be the same as the number of members that such circuit shall have upon the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. The members of the Board of Governors shall be elected in the manner as provided for in Article IV, and shall take office immediately upon the adjournment of the annual meeting of the Junior Bar Section following their election.

The members of the Board of Governors from each Judicial Circuit shall be nominated and elected by the active members of the Junior Bar Section residing in such Judicial Circuit, who shall be present and shall vote at the annual meeting. Each elected member shall hold office for two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The members representing the odd numbered circuits who are first elected under these regulations shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified; thereafter, elections in odd numbered circuits shall be held in odd numbered years, and elections in even numbered circuits shall be held in even numbered years. Any vacancy on the Board of Governors arising in the office of representative from a Judicial Circuit shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board for the unexpired term, from the active membership of such circuit. The members of the Board of Governors elected at the annual meeting in 1952 shall, upon adoption of these Regulations by the Junior Bar Section, and approval by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, be deemed to be those first elected under these Regulations and shall serve for the terms hereinabove provided.

The Board of Governors shall have the general management and control of the affairs of the Junior Bar Section, subject to the Rule Integrating The Florida Bar, the By-Laws of The Florida Bar, and these Regulations. The Board of Governors shall assist and cooperate with the officers and committees of The Florida Bar and it may recommend to the President thereof members of the Junior Bar Section to serve upon the various committees of The Florida Bar.

The Board of Governors shall fill by appointment any vacancy occurring in the office of Secretary or Treasurer of the Junior Bar Section and it may designate one of its members to perform temporarily the duties of the Chairman in case of the absence or inability to act of an elected officer.

The Board of Governors shall meet not less than once each quarter during each fiscal year at such time and place as the President may announce; provided that one of such quarterly meetings shall coincide with a regular midwinter meeting of the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

Upon the failure of any member of the Board of Governors to attend two successive meetings, his membership on the Board shall become terminated and the Board at such successive meeting shall fill such vacancy as provided hereinabove.

Article IX
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The President with the approval of the Board of Governors, may appoint an Executive Committee consisting of the President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer and five other members of the Board of Governors. The Executive Committee by two-thirds vote may exercise the powers of the Board of Governors, subject to such limitations as may be imposed by the Board of Governors.

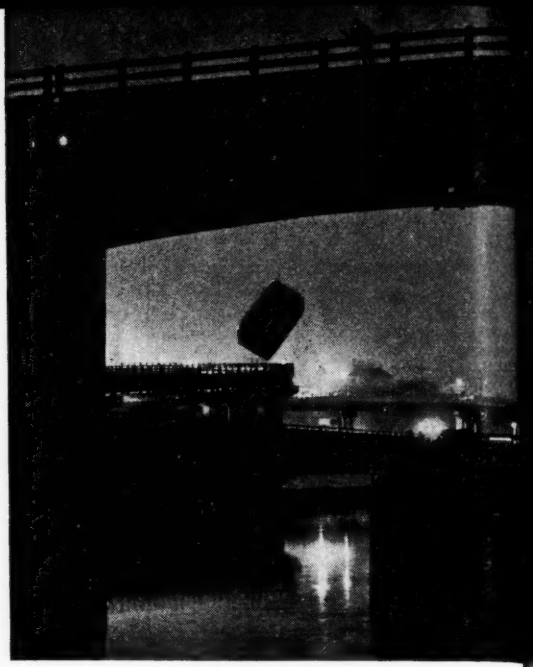
Why the burglar threw the Savings Bonds into the Passaic River



By the time Mrs. Lorraine Klamerus of East Rutherford, New Jersey, realized her Bonds were missing, they'd been lying on the bottom of the Passaic River for days. Still inside her strongbox.

The burglar threw them there after he found out they were worthless to anyone but Mrs. Klamerus.

As it turned out, the burglar was caught. Even if he hadn't been, Mrs. Klamerus wouldn't have been out a penny on her Bonds. For the Treasury Department keeps a microfilm record of every Bond sold, and replaces them at no cost to the owner.

This is just part of the guaranteed safety you get with U.S. Savings Bonds. And part of the reason millions of American families build their own strength and that of the nation this timely way. This strength is especially important now when the enemies of freedom are growing tougher every day.

Start buying Savings Bonds now, and see if you don't feel pretty good about it.

Quick facts about U.S. Savings Bonds

- You get $4 for every $3 at maturity
- You can get your money anytime
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed, or stolen
- You can save automatically on Payroll Savings

LEGISLATIVE POLICY OF THE FLORIDA BAR

In general, proposed legislation which will be sponsored by The Florida Bar will involve the legal profession, the administration of justice, or fundamental matters which are vital to the rights of the people. Matters of general public policy upon which the legal profession possesses no peculiar qualification to comment will generally not be incorporated into the Bar's legislative program but will be left to other organizations or to the public at large. Each proposed bill will be analyzed in the light of these criteria and considered under the procedures established in the Integration Rule and By-Laws of The Florida Bar.

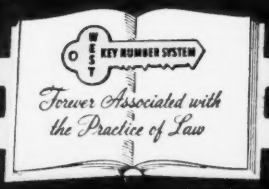
Experience and Know-how



West's experience and know-how helps you achieve better control of

(1) the time you spend; (2) the information you find; (3) the money you spend, through coordinated working tools. Each individual publication is a leader in its field and gives you an accurate statement of the law. But these books are doubly effective when used in conjunction with each other. They represent true coordinated research. This efficiency is the reason why more lawyers use West publications than any other books.
